WANT TO SEE WHAT GOES ON AT THORNTON?

Thornton's people, clubs, and sports can be recreated in pictures, sketches, and captions, but the spirit and friendships can only be recalled in the memories of those who once were Thornton.

IT'S AS MODERN AS A TV SET

Under the expert direction of students and faculty, Thornton presents a stupendous program throughout the year. Education, variety, comedy, drama, and sports are broadcast from her channels—the halls, classrooms, and cafeteria. New desks and fresh paint help form its modern cabinet.

contents

Channel	2	Variety: Entertainments, honorary functions, banquets, plays and even studies are on the program 4
Channel	5	Activities: Boys Club, Girls Club, KIP, Purple X, language clubs, and numerous others keep Thornton moving at an active pace 59
Channel	7	Sports: Football, basketball, tennis, wrestling, and swimming are a few of Thornton's sports 107
Channel	9	People: Faculty, administrators, staff, and students, constitute all of Thornton's people 137

AND JUST AS FULL

Pat Craig, Joy Lambert, Jeanne Musler, Joan Ashton.

Like the Girls Club and its style show put on by the seniors at the Freshman Stand-up. With everything being modeled—from skisuits and bathing suits through school clothes and up to formals—it was really tuned to Channel 2.

OF VARIETY

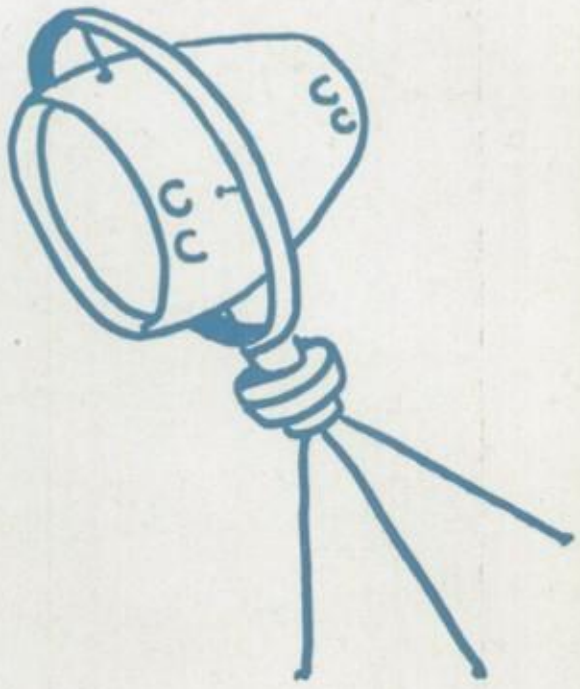
Marilyn Rusgis, Mike Eckstein.

But let's switch the program now to these two Thorntonites who are really living it up at the Junior-Senior party—Thornton's "Snowflake Fantasy", a Christmas affair.

Seated: Ruby Boyette, Carolyn Moore, Cecily Daanen, Claudia Fenwick. Standing: Cliff Deupree, Wayne Kruger, Sharon Zirbes, Rod Hanson, Al Lowery, Fred Bunch.

Still on Channel 2, the Homecoming Court is in the picture. These Thorntonites were chosen to rule during Homecoming weekend.

THERE ARE DANCES



Homecoming King and Queen—Rod Hanson, football champ, and Sharon Zirbes, cheerleader —reign at the Homecoming dance. They are chosen from the Homecoming court.

Couples were thick as snowflakes at the annual Christmas party. Sparkling mobiles and a huge revolving white Christmas tree made a beautiful setting.

Finale for the stage show at the KIP Valentine dance brought together all the actors. There had been singing, dancing, and a satire on popular TV shows. The street-corner gang singing "Heart of My Heart" created the atmosphere for the whole production.

Thornton shut out Blue Island 31-0. And here's one of the main reasons why—in action. Brooks Young—a Thornton champion— is scoring a TD in the third quarter. Brooks set a new record during the football season by scoring 73 points in league play.

Diane Paarlberg, Beverly Capolillo, Carol Owen, and Donna Breivogel practice their tumbling while the other freshmen in Mrs. Doyle's sixth period gym watch them.

Russ McKibben (42) works his way around his man as Ed Creach(14) looks on in the Blue Island game.

AND GAMES FOR EVERY SEASON

This happy crowd is cheering for another Thornton touchdown at one of the games in the early part of the season.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS

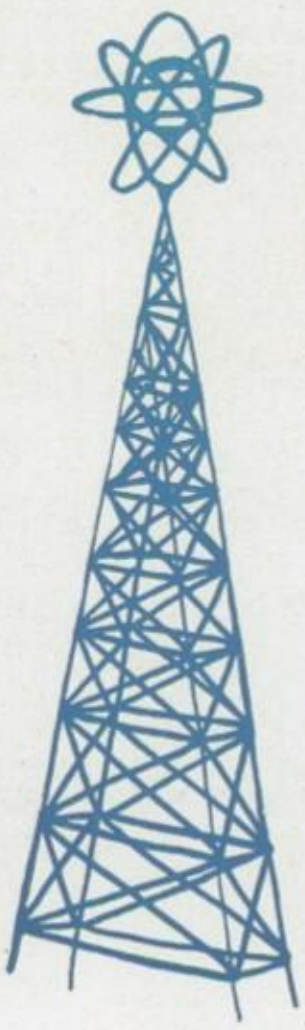
Thornton clubs were busy all year long. Junior Service Award girls stuffed animals for sick children. Committee meetings preceded club initiations. Passers-by in the corridor often saw boys discussing their problems in Mr. Umbaugh's office.

Welfare—Marilyn Butler, Pat Craig, Darlene Kaminski, Kathy Paasch, and Beverly Hardeway.

TOO

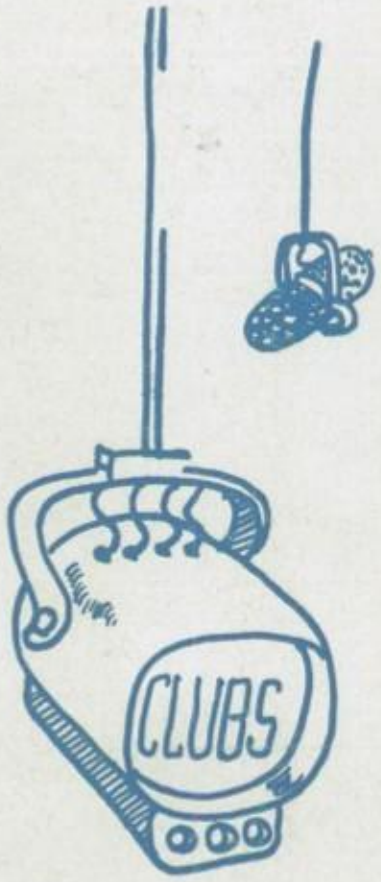
Latin Club initiation—Don Braselton, Donna Pouilly, Carolyn Ryan, and Dick Suhs.

Waiting in the Boys Club office—Dick Toole, Les Gardner, and Joe Pinger.



Language club meetings are planned at council sessions such as the one being led by Kathy Paasch. Besides initiations, games, and parties, popular meetings were arranged to acquaint students with foreign countries.

COUNCIL SESSIONS



George Gallati discusses KIP business with the board.

Presidents of the "Big Four" get together for a conference—Ray Huttig, Purple X; Cecily Daanen, Girls Club; Fred Bunch, Boys Club; and Pete Eckstein, KIP.

AND PRACTICES

Thornton's twirlers often work up their routines and practice formations in the corridor first period and after school. Above are Joyce Moore, Marilyn Sudds, Virginia Graves, and Elaine Allison.

Here Nancy Frachey, Yvonne Cadieux, Toni Cienkus, and June Schilling are in dress rehearsal practice for their number in the Homecoming dance entertainment.

UNENDING

It takes patience, hard work, time and energy, and, of course, a considerable amount of talent to have a fine orchestra, but Thornton has all these qualities plus many extras. Mr. Jack Pernecky has continued to do an outstanding job as conductor. He is pictured as he works with Sandra Skye and John Tripp, two members of the string quartet.

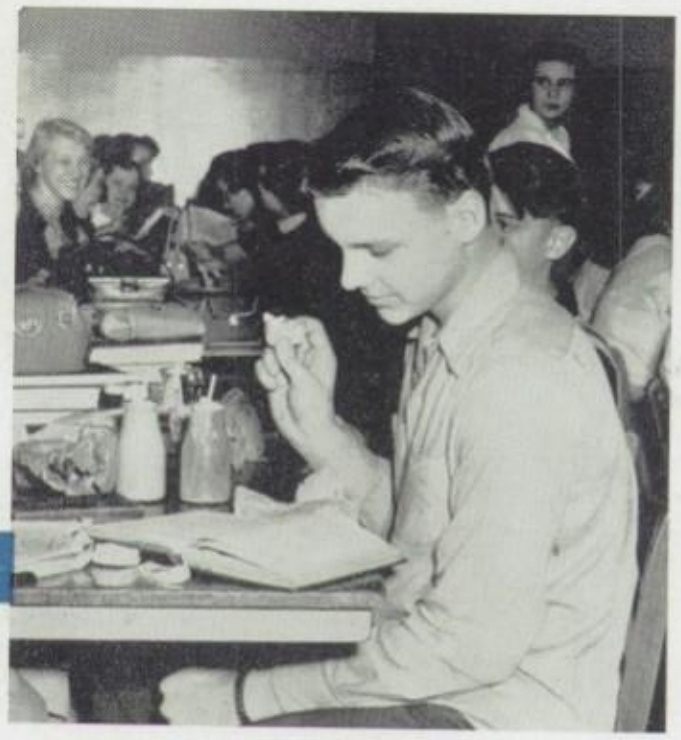
Being cashier in the cafeteria line requires concentration. Barbara Davis likes it though.

WE LIKE TO EAT

Selling cokes at a football game can be a rushing business at times. Dolores Collett, Linda Norford, Janet Greig, and Sandy Skye are members of the Refreshment Crew.

Good Humors—Mr. William A. Rodgers, Henry LaBrec, John Thies, Alan Javert.

When it comes to consuming food, Thorntonites take a back seat for no one. Cafeteria statistics in the form of pounds of potatoes, pieces of pie, and bottles of milk seem almost astronomical at times. And the number of cokes and hot dogs consumed at a football game, if laid end to end, would reach out of this world. The Good Humor truck does such a thriving business on those warm fall and spring days, Mr. Rodgers declares that he finds Thornton one of his favorite schools.



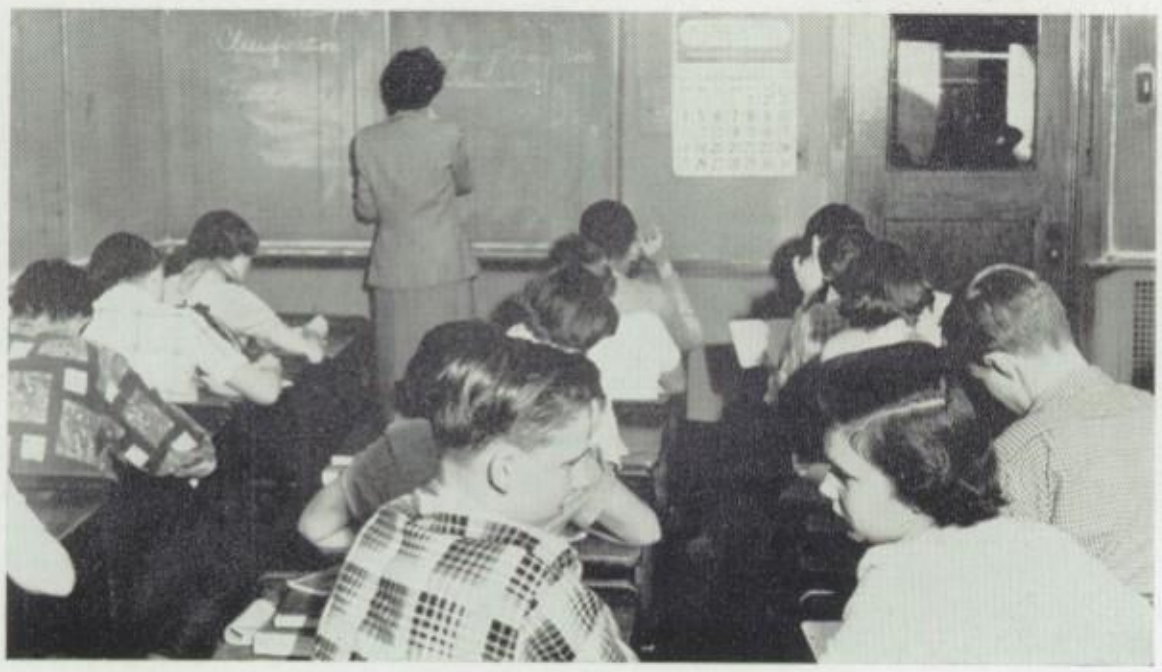
Ken Stelter reads as he eats.

If only lockers could talk! There would be stories of conversations overheard and events witnessed, like the happy moments the books are piled in before assemblies or the sad ones after report card day. There would be comments about faculty, friends, and the movie and TV personalities that grace the locker doors, just as here behind Sharon Campbell as she talks to Arlene Haseman.

Like Darlene Graefen and Laddie DeVore, we made tape recordings of talks given in class and skits presented. We improved our speech habits as we learned more about the class topic. We found a tape recorder as educational as a movie and lots more fun on the play-back.

AND TALK

We liked to recite in class but we liked to whisper too, like Dennis Johnson and Donna Licht in Mrs. Fesler's English class. Some teachers were more human than others and seemed to realize that there are things which can't be said out loud but that just can't wait until after class, either.



At the Father-Son Stag, the model car exhibit drew lots of attention. Above are Mr. DeBoer, Mr. Robinson, Dean DeBoer, and Robert Johnson.

TO ENTERTAIN

Mrs. Reder tries to understand as James explains very carefully what mechanical drawing is all about.

Cecily Daanen and her father watch Mr. A. F. Heino and Bob Facko in their skits for "Pops in Paris" at this year's Dad-Daughter Dinner.

MOMS AND DADS

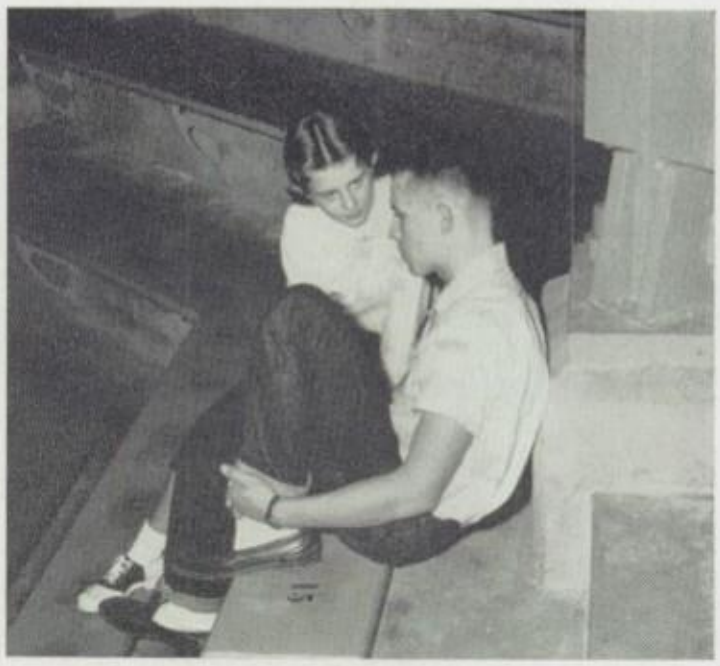
The month of January was an eventful one. The Mother-Son Banquet was first on the list, followed by the Dad-Daughter Dinner on Saturday, January 16. It was then the boys' turn to provide an evening of entertainment for the masculine half of the family at the annual party for the fathers—the Father-Son Stag, Saturday evening, January 30. The main event of the evening was the talk and movies by Commander MacMillan, the Arctic explorer.

OUR DATES AND

Our dates and friends were many. Two big traditional events at Thornton where the girls showed off their best were the Freshman Stand-up and the Home Ec style show. They felt the true value of friendship when committee work had to be done, but they found that the experiences were rewarding.

"We are happy to report that Thorntonite's Magic Carpet is sailing along with a fine tail wind," announced the general chairman of the Freshman Stand-up. Girls from all four classes took part in the stunts. Three principals from the sophomores were Leola Poppel, Marian Wognum, and Sue Peters.

FRIENDS



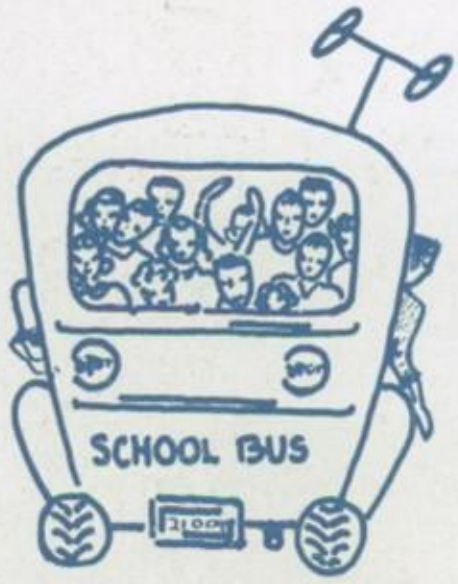
Carol Heberling, Bill Stuart

Girls in the Home Ec Department showed off their best before mothers, guests, and sponsors at the annual style show. Here Miss Ford explains to Thelma Petrusak as the others watch: Mary Ann Vrbancic, Barbara Wolfe, Sandra Madderom, Phyllis Hartwig, and Miss Gantzert.

Sharon Zirbes pours at the Girls Club "Mad Tea Party". Lined up at the tea table with faculty guests are Carolyn Ryan, Miss Moler, Mr. Gibbens, Sharon Kelley, and Sandra Sitton.

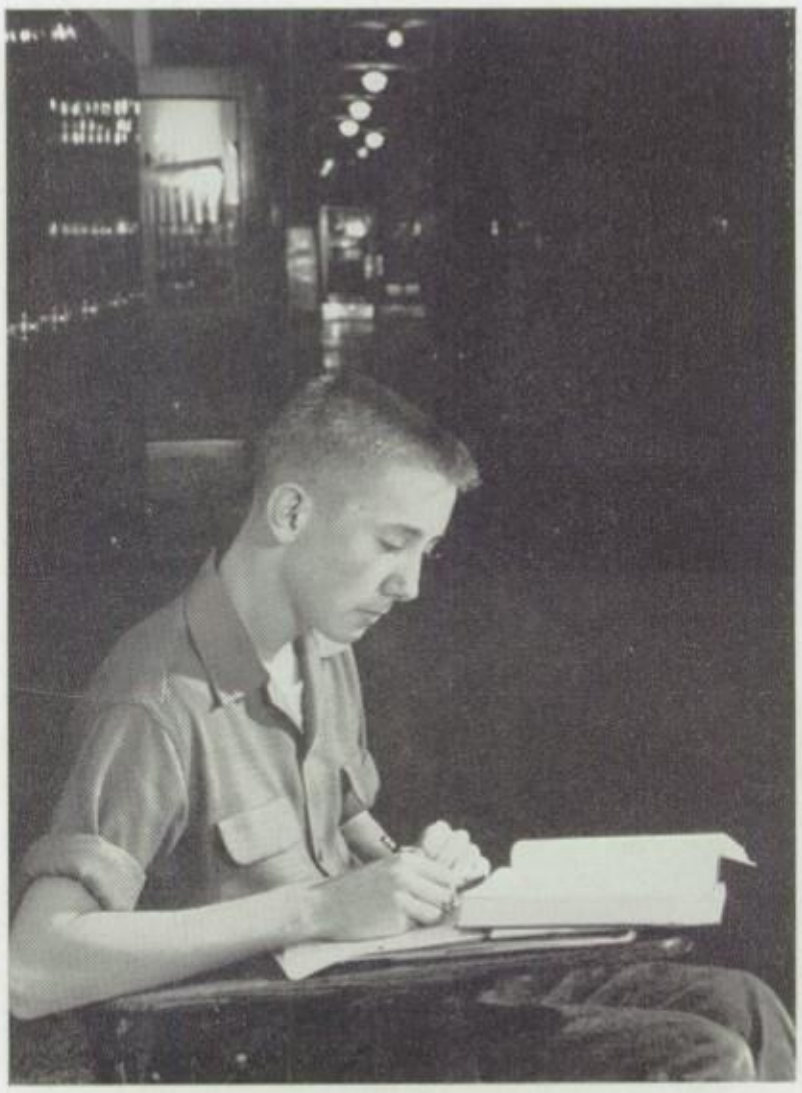
WE ARE SOMETIMES

A ballot box at the ticket gate took care of votes for the Homecoming king and queen as the students entered—Mike Ruffolo, Carol Sutor, Trent Owings, Bill Kisner, Lyda Chance.



GAY

KIP sponsored buses to out-of-town football and basketball games this year when enough students showed interest by purchasing tickets. That gave everyone who couldn't drive, an opportunity to see the team in action. On the buses, students showed their enthusiasm for the teams with spirited singing and cheering. As with many of the services, the KIP was merely offering opportunities to students, not trying to raise money. Ticket prices were based on the cost of the bus with no attempt at a profit.



Sometimes hall guards had a chance to catch up on their homework while on duty. Here, it's Bill Pierce.

Judy Walter and the rest of Miss Weis's American history class plow vigorously into a difficult exam.

Seniors have pep? No one would know it from this view of a dispirited group at a pep assembly in the big gym!

At times school spirit is camouflaged. Here it is obvious that long, depressed faces can mean only one thing—the basketball team is losing. Their hearts are saying, "We are going to win!", and they don't give up hope even at the last minute. At Thornton the spirit sometimes is in the heart, not the face.

AND SOMETIMES GLUM

From the first time we held a pencil, we had been taught to express our ideas on paper. At Thornton we put this ability to use in several different ways. We use it to write the yearbook and newspaper. Some of us have had our poems printed in a national magazine. But more commonly we use our ability to express ourselves in essays, themes, and homework.

WE CAN WRITE

Right—Bob Rhind, Sandra Skye, and Joyce Falica learn how to make wills.

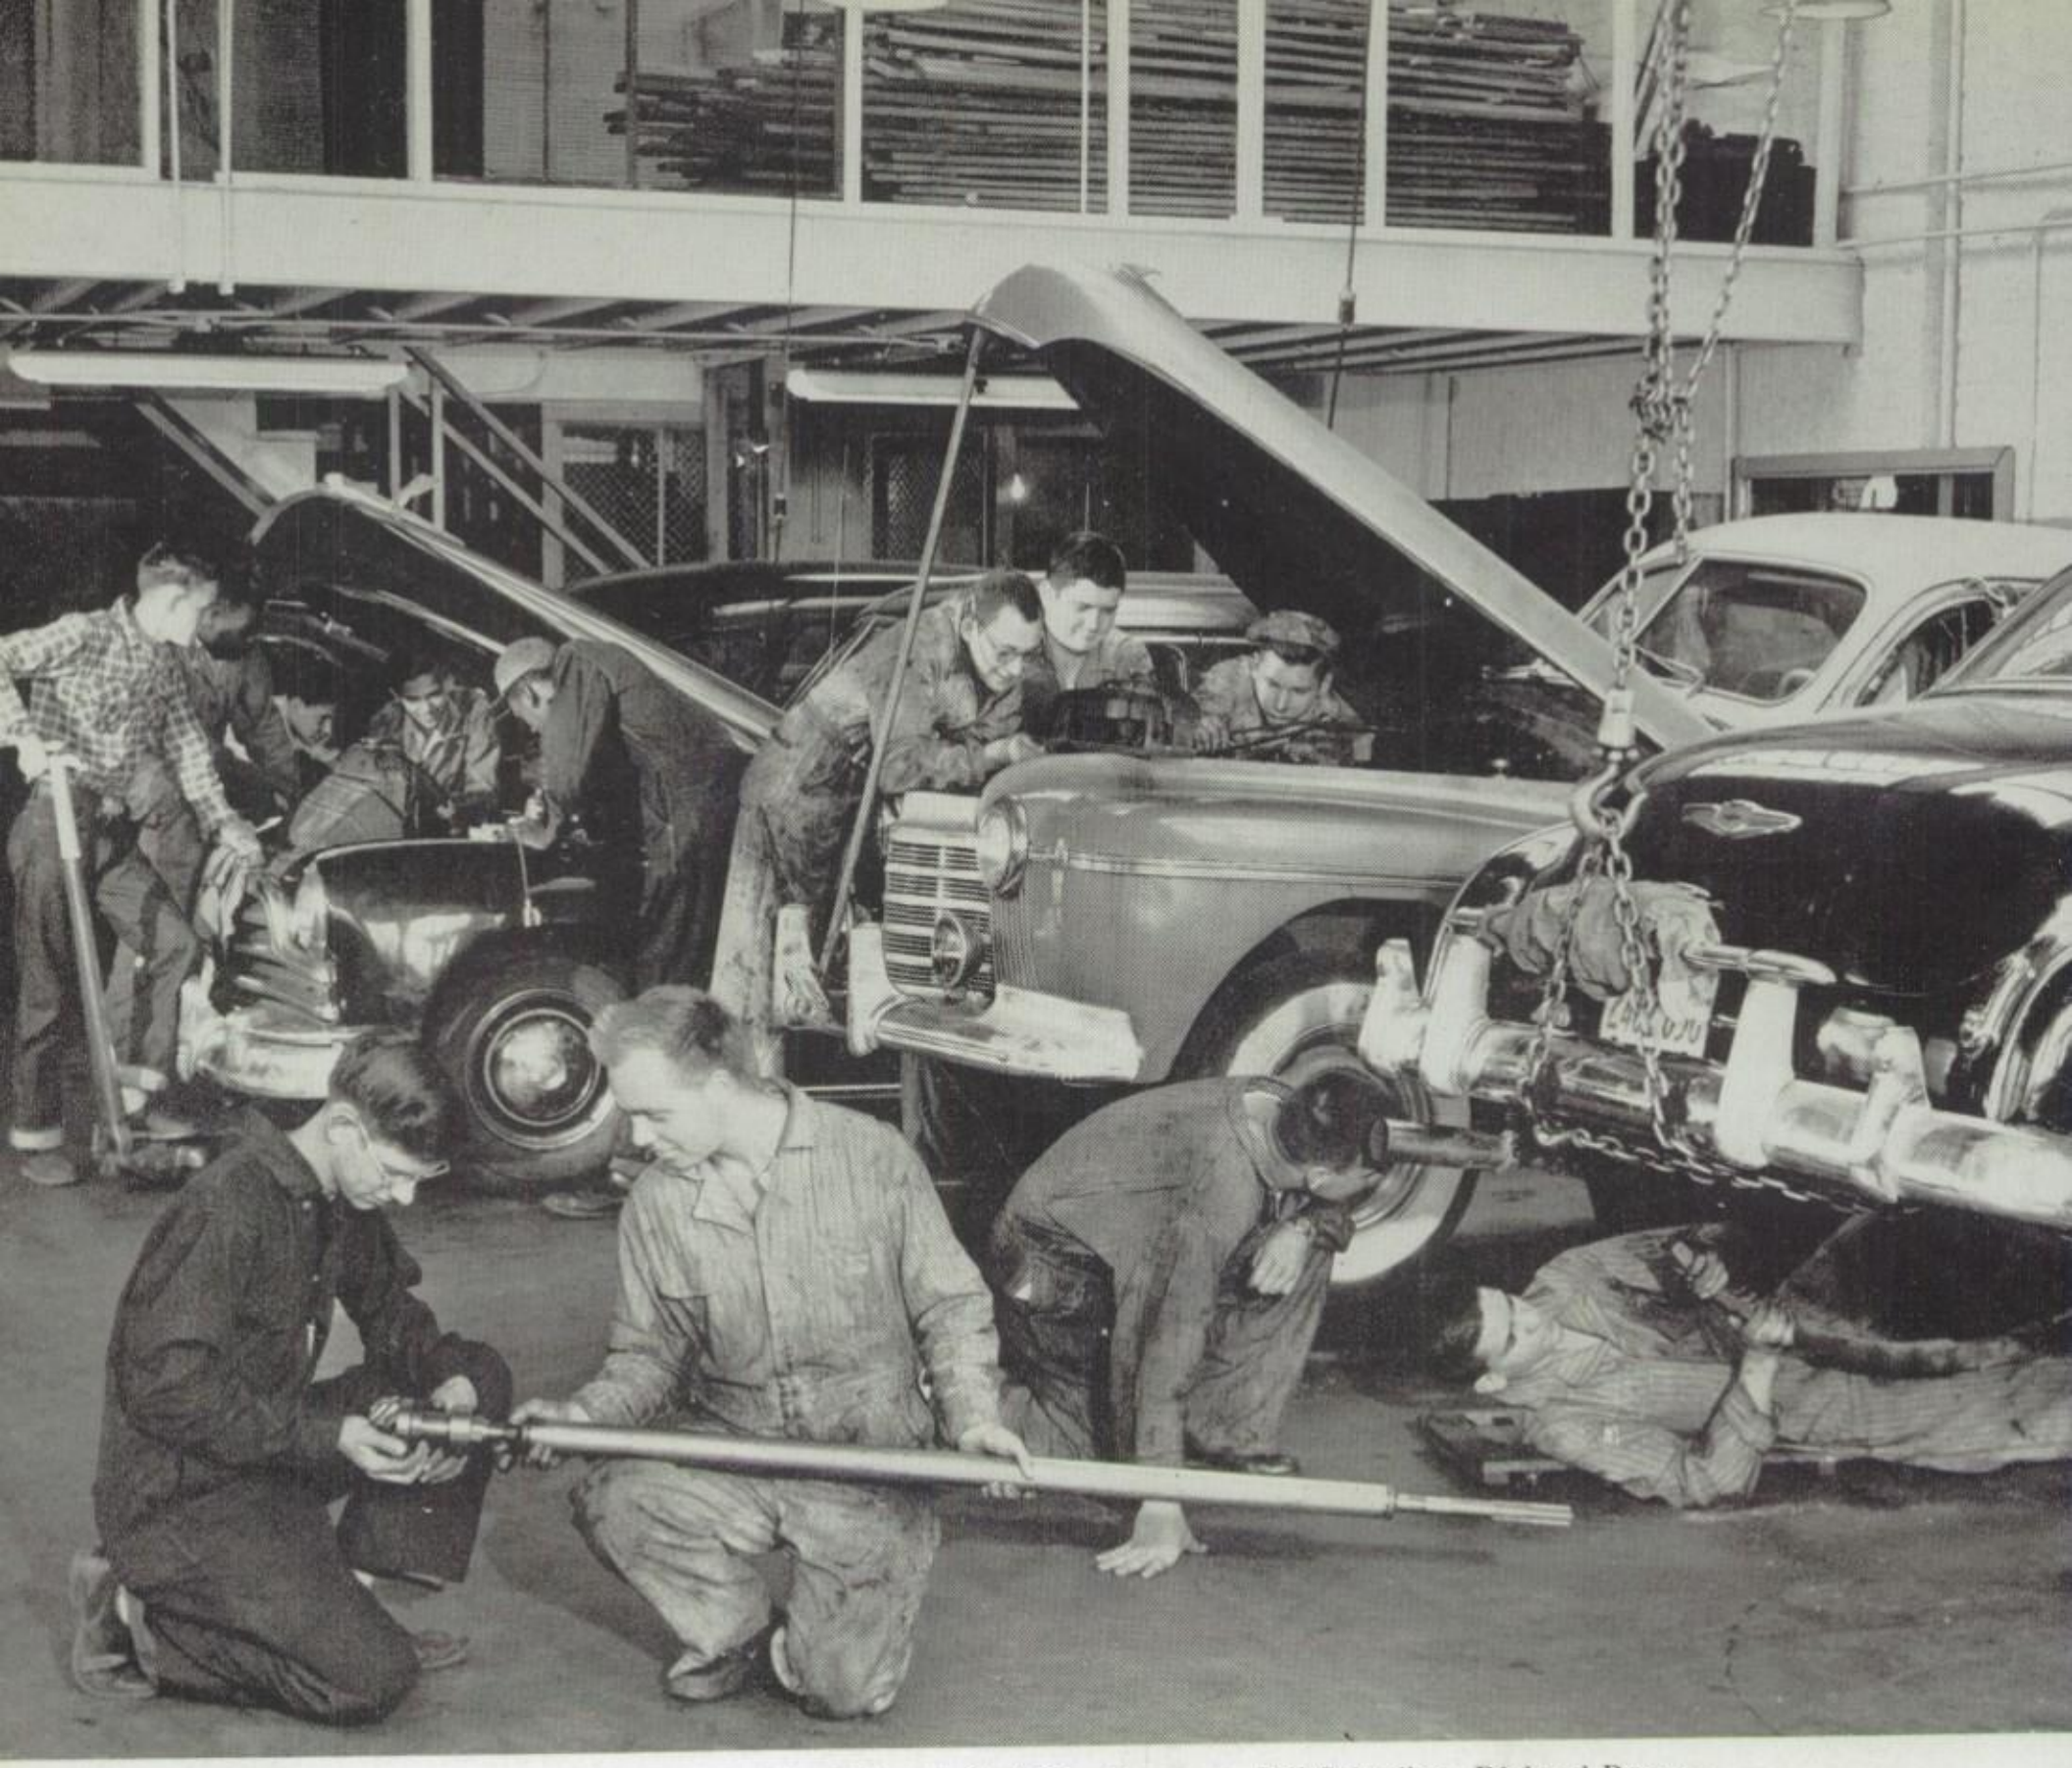
AND WE CAN

It was easy to see what to do next when you could watch the demonstration mirror in Miss Reed's foods lab. Muriel Hunt, Leona Kossak, Carol Johnson, and Audrey Johnson show how.

COOK

Margaret Wagner prepares muffins in Miss Miles' laboratory.

Muriel Hunt serves Miss Velma Wray at a faculty luncheon.



Auto Shop—Charles Reiland, Carl Van Kanegan, Bill Schreiber, Richard Rossow.

Vocational Auto Shop students receive training by working on actual repair of "live" cars from the road. Repair jobs of all types are completed by the members of this class, who are in the shop for four periods each day. The work is part of a program of the vocational division where specific training is the objective.

Right—Pat Oviatt, Joy Lambert, and Mary Bardwick are well along in their ceramics projects.

Mr. Aseltine points out to Roselynn Crenshaw important factors to remember in a Basic Art class.

On the portion of the TTHS TV show sponsored by the Art Department, artistic students at Thornton had a big opportunity to show their talents. In ceramics classes there were vases, bowls, and figurines. Experiments with glazes brought some surprising results. The new potter's wheel was a useful piece of equipment. Jewelry making and work with plastics produced some excellent displays for the main floor showcase. Posters advertised all the games, plays, and social affairs of the year.

Above—Miss Ford's clothing class: Verna Norton, Marie Maslanka, Marlene Peiguss, Marie Ortmueller, Donna Doll, Alice Roney, Thelma Petrusak, Frances Cooper, Pat Boughton, Phyllis Hartwig.

IN THE CLOTHING LAB

In clothing classes, girls begin with simple patterns and graduate to more complicated ones. Each piece of clothing has to be planned and materials purchased before actual cutting, fitting, and sewing can begin. Color, texture, and line must be appropriate for the pattern and for the girl who will wear the garment.

Top—Betty Bowling holds up a pattern.

Center—Miss Gantzert's class cutting dresses: Barbara Niemann, Janice Vaul, Betty Bremner, Darlene Lang.

IN OUR CLASS

There is as much variety in the classrooms as there is on any TV channel. No matter what your interests, you can find a class to help develop them. Courses are offered in bewildering profusion, and for every course there are students who are ready to make good use of them. Opportunities for learning are endless.

Left—Pat Oviatt, Linda Norford, and Joy Lambert painted the math mural in room 227.

Below—With the aid of a poster map, Shirle Delo gives a talk in Spanish class.

ROOMS

WE LIKE TO ACT

Above—Mr. Ohlert puts make-up on Carol Schweichert.

Left—Radio speech class with Kenneth Schuning and Janet Van Der Sluys at the mike and John Diamond in the control booth.

In radio speech class Thorntonites were taught to use a microphone correctly. Among the techniques studied were how to put over a subject well, how to breathe correctly, and how to enunciate clearly. They learned to write scripts that would put across their ideas and get the desired reaction from listeners. From back of the mike they learned to operate the instruments in a radio control booth. Dramatics class had training in acting, directing, stage makeup, lighting and scenery construction.

FOR OTHERS

Jim Van Evra, in the balcony, trains the spotlight at play practice.

At Thornton we do many things for fun—dances, games, pep rallies, plays, parties, concerts. But there is a side of Thornton that parents often don't believe exists, the serious side. Yes, we can be serious about many things—not only studies like math, English, term papers, but club work and school projects. By working on committees and boards we help to govern Thornton. At group meetings for boys and for girls, problems vital to happy social adjustment are discussed. Debate requires serious thinking and plenty of alertness. Even at social affairs we can have our serious moments.

WE CAN BE SERIOUS

A serious moment at the Homecoming bonfire. Even Martians from "Out-of-this-world" are affected.

Yvonne Langlois addresses her debate class on the current topic.

OR LIGHT HEARTED

Yes, we can be lighthearted, especially at Homecoming. Everyone feels so wonderful after winning the game. We can forget all our troubles and dance "Out of This World" at this, the first big dance of the school year.

On the football sidelines—Wildcat Keith Turkington and Cheerleaders Janet Piel, Marilyn Rusgis, Diane Whitman, and Nance Chisser. Theirs was a big responsibility.

Hoofers at the Homecoming dance—Dolores Black, Alice Centers, Marybeth O'Connor, Charmaine Hess.

Some Martians preferred to remain anonymous—for reasons best known to themselves. But they didn't fool everyone.

As a dance team, Sandra Bergman and Jim Ertl made a good combination. Whenever they appeared applause was plenty.

Janet Nolting and Joanne Ihfe sold mums for the Latin Club at the Homecoming game. Customers were many, eager, and well pleased.

WE

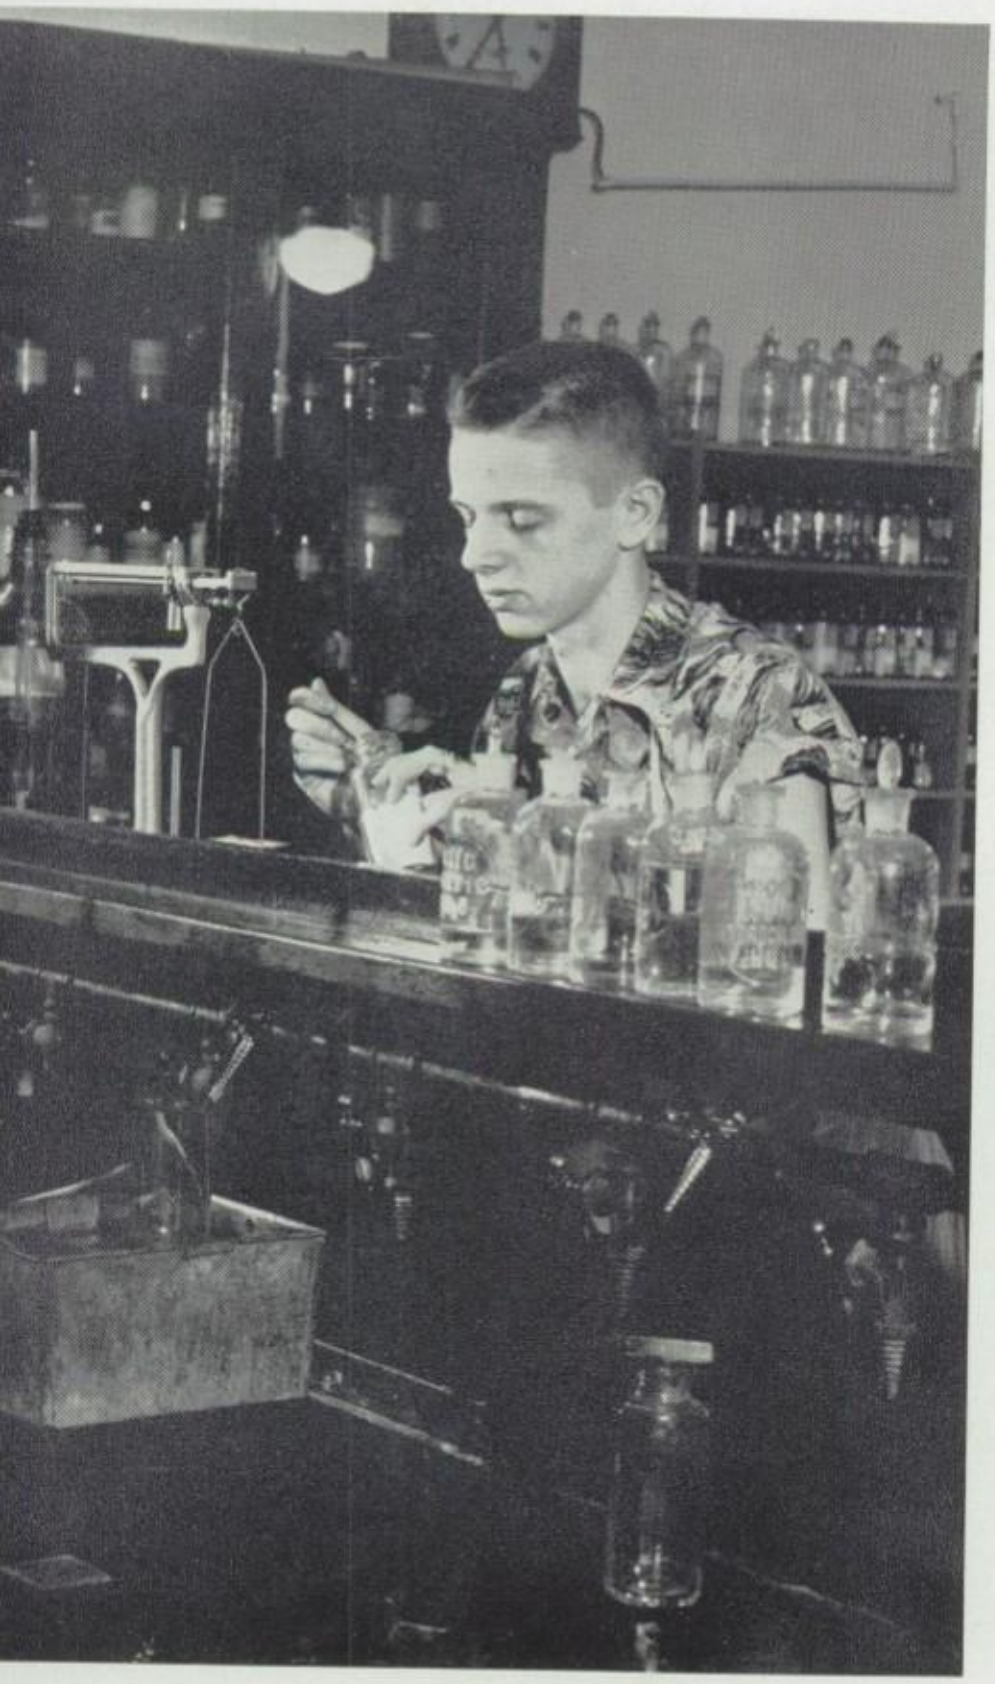
CAN BE SCIENTIFIC



Above—A Chemistry lab experiment with Richard Vander Linden, Nancy Jacobs, and Charles Duke.

Seeing the wonders of science become reality, especially when you helped to uncover them, brings one a certain unequaled satisfaction. At first tools and equipment seemed strange. As the year progressed, strangeness vanished and budding Einsteins appeared.

In General Science class, Charles Wagoner and Faye Van Deursen watch David Ring.

Retail Selling—Bruce Robbins, Mary Ellen Scott, Marion Cuffe, Donna Deadmore, Charlotte Johnson, Artemis Armatas.

OR BUSINESS-LIKE

Thornton's Business Department is one of which we can be proud. Because of the expert instruction and high standards of work required here, the department is known to employers all over the country. Its purpose has been to prepare students for work in offices wherever the need is felt.

Under the guidance of Mr. Leo Bowers, head of the department, and his corps of teachers, careers of many future secretaries, stenographers, and office workers are launched.

Aside from the practice of speedy and accurate typing and of learning to take dictation rapidly, students receive instructions on the operation of business machines such as the mimeograph, ditto machine, comptometer, and dictaphone—machines that help make office work more rapid and efficient. The speed and accuracy goals of this department are excellent training for the future. Retail selling, which trains future salesmen in using effective techniques, and Bookkeeping, too, are both important parts of one of the "channels" of education in this television age.

RIGHT: Office Practice— Dolores Ketelboeter, Nancy Fredrickson, Marlene Fredrick, Betty Ceres, Nancy Frachey, Imogene Boivin, Mary Jane Broton, Carole Finney.

AND GETTING YEARBOOKS

Under the Lincoln statue—Sue Peters, Vivienne Marovich.

On the campus—Diane Skidmore, Doris Lindquist.

Coaches Confer—Ted Czech, wrestling; Tom Nisbet, basketball; Tiny Huddlestun, football; Frank Froschauer, swimming.

AND SO—THORNTON IS SPORTS—

To maintain a well-balanced curriculum, Thornton must, at all times, offer a variety of activities to its people.

Sports of all types, and to fit all seasons, are offered to everyone. The teams participating in inter-school competition are of interest not only to those playing, but also to the many Thorntonites who are ardent fans of these sports. There is good reason to be proud of the athletic teams, for almost yearly they walk off with top honors in their divisions.

Athletics aren't the only extra-curricular activities available to Thornton students. A variety of clubs is offered also, embracing almost every phase of life. Some clubs deal mainly with the social aspect, although an assortment of others cover politics, religion, debate, welfare, scout services, the languages taught in school, music, nursing, teaching, and dramatics.

Therefore it can be said that the interests of every Thorntonite are well taken care of.

MAC Initiation—President Emily Hand caps Carolyn Ryan with the assistance of Linda Bergold and Jacqueline Graves. Joy Householder, Norma Jean DeBoer, and Laurie McCarthy watch.

CHANNEL 5

THORNTON IS CLUBS

Thornton offers some sort of club for every student. The Big Four—Purple X, Boys Club, KIP, and Girls Club—promote all-school projects, both for entertainment and service. Other groups, like the language and political clubs, appeal to special interests. For those who like to act, there is Footlighters Club. Music lovers find the glee clubs, band or orchestra fill their needs. Every wide-awake student can find a club to fit him exactly!

BOARD

Row 1: Bryan Arveson, Marylynn St. Aubin, Joan Webster, Lois Cohenour, Linda Schaefer, Sharon Zirbes. Row 2: George Gallati, Bill Baron, Mike Eckstein, Tim Abraham, Trent Owings, Guy Lafferty.

The camera now focuses on the one organization that every Thorntonite automatically belongs to—the KIP. "Knowledge Is Power," the school motto, inspired the name for the student council. This group gives all students a voice in school government.

KIP is governed by a board and a forum. The Board includes the major officers, two freshmen, three sophomores, four juniors, and five seniors, elected from their respective classes. The Forum consists of one representative chosen from each homeroom.

Meetings are held regularly—once a week for the Board and once a month for the Forum. During this busy year, the KIP, under the leadership of Pete, Larry, Dave, Carolyn, and Rog, sponsored both the traditional activities and some new ones as well.

STUDENT COUNCIL PROJECTS

KIP works on many projects each year. These range from the strictly social to those which serve the school. In 1953-54, KIP continued with the traditional homecoming celebration and the Valentine and Last Chance dances. They also added new projects.

One was ID cards for all students. Remember filling out the cards in homeroom and getting them back a couple of weeks later in neat plastic cases?

Another new project was the student directory. There was that endless line in front of the KIP office, but you finally got your book. It had a purple and white cover, and at your fingertips were the phone numbers and addresses of all of your friends.

BUSES TO GAMES

One of the things KIP has been doing quite successfully is encouraging all of the kids to support Thornton's teams. During the year when there was any demand, they've sent buses to the away football and basketball games, held pep assemblies, and built an active basketball cheering section.

HOMECOMING COMMITTEE

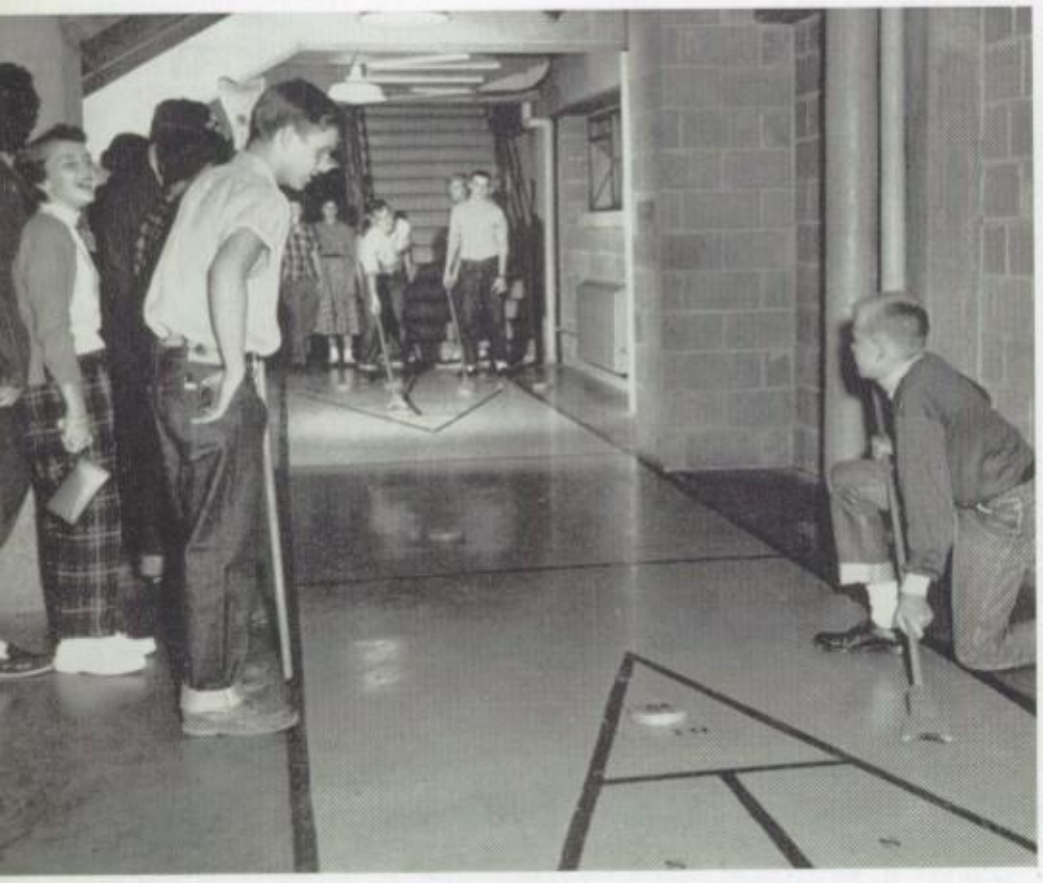
LOST AND FOUND

How often have you asked, "Has anybody seen my pen?" or maybe it was a pencil or book. What about the time you lost your boots at the Purple X? Contrary to the story of the three little kittens, you knew where to find them. So you went to the KIP Lost and Found.

Joan Webster, Jolean Joyner, Donna Pouilly, and Linda Schaefer check the records.



SHUFFLEBOARD

KIP'S FALL GYM JAM

What is a Gym Jam? You say you never heard of one? Well, it's a night when everyone comes together at the Gym for all sorts of activities.

The KIP fall Gym Jam was loads of fun. There were all kinds of things to do, like volleyball, swimming, ping pong, and shuffleboard. If anyone didn't want to go in for these more active sports, there was dancing to the music of the 54's, and movies. Dancing was on the stage, and everyone had to try a dance or two to make the evening complete. Refreshments were sold up in the balcony.

A Gym Jam is held on a night when there is no game or other school activity. To be sure that everyone gets in on the fun, KIP posts lists to be signed for reservations for each sport. The chairmen see that all comers stick to the schedule and that no one is left out.

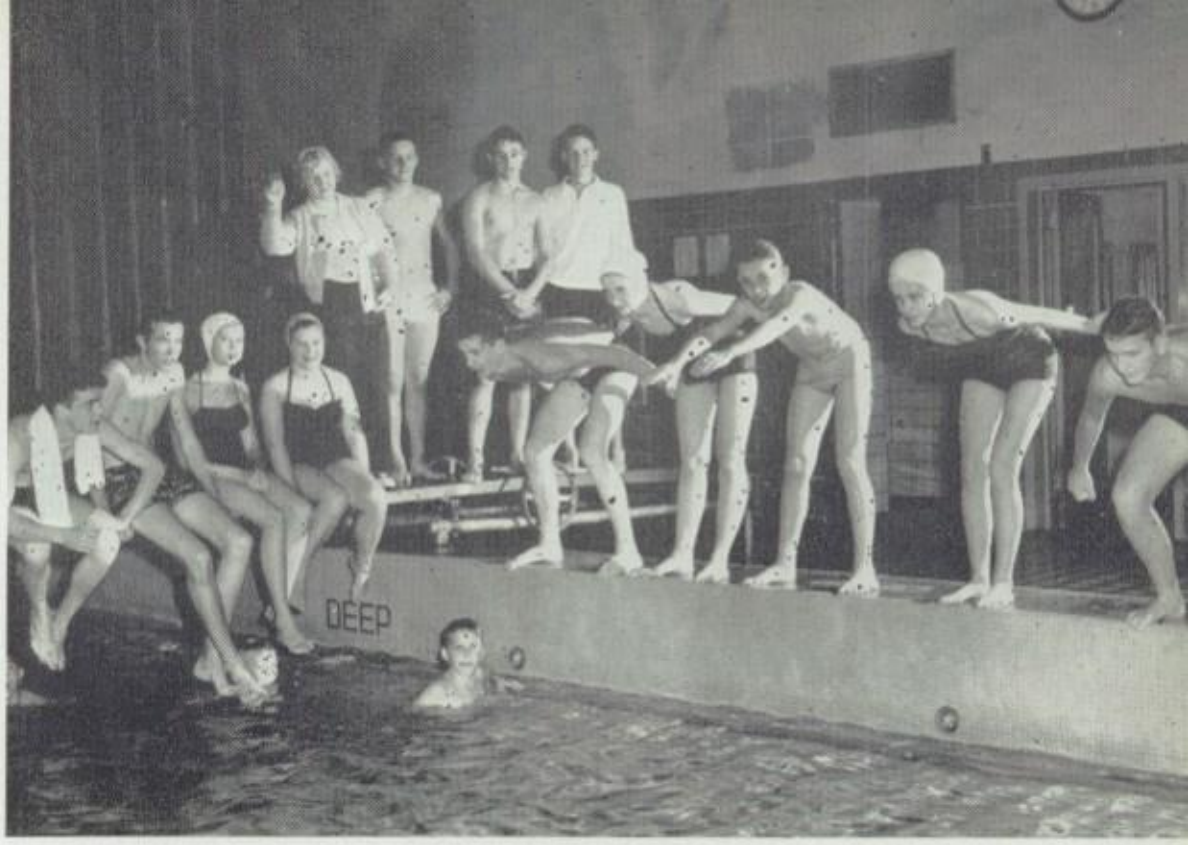
REFRESHMENTS

Cokes, orange pop, and doughnuts were for sale in the refreshment booths. After a hard evening of dancing and playing, everyone was glad to buy a snack and rest a while.

SWIMMING

Thornton's big pool was open on the night of the Gym Jam to those who signed up. About fifty an hour went swimming, and all had a wonderful time.

They could race, dive, or just dog-paddle. Girls enjoyed wearing their own swim suits instead of the drab old tank suits that went with PE classes.



Mary Ellen Scott, chairman, gets ready to give the signal for a splashing big race while diving board rooters stand by.

VOLLEYBALL

Everyone had a chance to play volleyball, and although it wasn't according to the rules, it was fun.

No one really won, for the games never ended. Lost shoes were common because many played in socks.

OFFICERS

Gordon Rehberg, vice-president; Ray Huttig, president; Susan Morse, secretary; Bob Moldal, treasurer.

PURPLE X

Purple X has been a part of Thornton tradition since 1938. The organization derives its name from Purple, the school color, and X, the undetermined number of functions of the group. Its chief function is to provide recreation for students after the home football and basketball games. The task is accomplished by dances now held in the new gym.

The Purple X Committee, composed of students and teachers, is elective. New members are chosen each year by the committee to replace those who graduate. A spring banquet for the members climaxes the year's activities.

BOYS CLUB—FOR ALL THORNTON BOYS

As the television camera moves around Thornton's halls, it stops at a very familiar scene—room 108B, better known as Thornton's Boys Club office. In this room many little dramas take place each day. Some incidents are embarrassing, others are humorous, but all are a part of the Boys Club. In this room boys talk over their problems, tell jokes, and show their manly strength to each other.

All Thornton boys are eligible to join the Boys Club, and when they do, they receive membership pins. Those pins, strangely enough, soon turn up on girls' sweaters. It's just an old Thornton custom that boys give their pins to their favorite girls who, in turn, proudly claim membership in the Boys Club.

But the club is more than a place for fun. It is a useful and necessary part of Thornton.

OFFICERS, BOARD

BUS GUARDS

Thornton is a pretty big old place that has many students. These students come from many neighboring towns and villages. Buses are needed to transport these students to and from Thornton. Someone is needed to maintain order on these buses since students can be pretty rowdy at times. The boys who keep order, maintain discipline and safety, and talk to the bus driver in low, soothing tones so they won't lose all of their sanity are called bus guards.

HALL GUARD OFFICERS

CAMPUS PATROL

Thornton's Campus Patrol is always on the job. Even in winter, they keep the grounds free of papers and other debris. They enforce safety rules, stop reckless driving, and prohibit smoking on the campus.

As the camera swings on down the halls of Thornton, it centers on boys stationed at their posts. These are the hall guards, whose duty is to keep the halls clear of students without passes during class periods. They also give directions to lost students, especially to the freshmen during the first few weeks of school.

Like most human beings, they enjoy a good laugh, and sometimes send a freshman hurrying to the wrong place. Most of the time, however, they do a good job and are a vital part of Thornton.

The Hall Guard Organization is one of the big projects of the Boys Club but has its own officers.

BOYS CLUB PROJECTS

Thornton's Boys Club carries on many activities in the school year. One of the biggest is the Mother-Son Banquet. The evening is set aside for boys to take out their favorite girls, their mothers. On a tour of the building, the mothers linger in the new Home Economics laboratory and try to act intelligent about the maze of machinery in the shops. After the tour comes a banquet and then entertainment.

On another night the fellows are hosts to their fathers at a stag party. The fathers, escorted through the building, work up pretty big appetites on their long walk. By the time the entertainment is over, they are ready for the roast beef sandwiches and trimmings that follow.

BOARD

Row 1: Lynne Harris, Linda Schaefer, Mary Jo Furth, Lois Cohenour, Joy Walker. Row 2: Sharon Davis, Colleen Dardis, Joan Webster, Ann Henderson, Sue Birkhead, Jane Gouwens.

GIRLS CLUB—FOR

When the Girls Club was organized in January, 1916, by Miss Frances Gordon, its purpose was purely social. Now, however, it has grown to include much welfare work too.

With the help of the dean of girls, the major officers direct the many activities of the club. The president and vice-president are elected by the minor officers. Speaker of council and speaker of division chairmen come from their group. The secretary and the treasurer are elected from the board.

The purpose of the board is to transact business and to promote the activities of the club. It consists of six seniors, five juniors, four sophomores, and three freshmen.

CHAIRMEN

Row 1: Pat Craig and Marilyn Butler, Jr. Service Award. Row 2: Sylvia Archer, group meetings; Joanne Walczak, room; Nancy Walker, group meetings.

ALL THORNTON GIRLS

Girls Club committees proved to be quite active during the year.

Group meetings were held in the Girls Club room for the freshman and sophomore girls.

Welfare was one of the big Girls Club activities. Girls took gifts to Oak Forest at holiday time and visited the Home for Incurables, a non-charitable institution in Chicago.

Refreshments were sold by the club at the home football games.

It is through work in these and other projects that girls earn the "T" pins and service awards.

CHAIRMEN

Row 1: Beverly Pokorny, refreshment crew; Audrey Swanson and Peggy Heino, welfare. Row 2: Jackie Conner and Toni Cienkus, activity points; Joyce Marlowe, refreshment crew.

SCHOLARSHIP

Janet Greig, Joan Brown, Jane Gouwens.

Special honors are given on Scholarship Day to girls who have earned A's in four solids and have a satisfactory citizenship rating. When a girl has attained seven semesters of A, her name is engraved on the scholarship pitcher.

The duty of each division chairman is to report the absences in her homeroom and to find out the reason for these absences. The secretaries of attendance supplement the work of the division chairmen by sending a note after three days' absence or flowers if an illness is long and serious. The Master-Sheet chairman records the names of the absentees.

ATTENDANCE

CHAIRMEN

AND PROJECTS

MAGAZINE DRIVE

Lois Cohenour, chairman; Peggy Heino, first prize; Ann Swenson, second prize; Joan Eix, chairman; Judy Jensen, prizes.

No school year would be complete without the annual magazine drive. This year, it was sponsored by the Girls Club alone. In addition to fun and prizes, the drive provided money for the welfare fund.

Other highlights of the year were the Freshman Stand-up, Loyalty Day, the Dad-Daughter and Mother-Daughter dinners. At the beginning of each school year the Freshman Stand-up is held to welcome new students. Loyalty Day pays tribute to Miss Frances Gordon, founder of the Girls Club.

The first semester came to a climax with all the girls taking their favorite dates to the Dad-Daughter dinner. The Mother-Daughter banquet with its May Queen and court was the big event of the spring.

THORNTONITE—NEWSPAPER, YEARBOOK

PASTE-UP

Barbara Kreps, Barbara Zajicek, Binnie Braun.

PUBLICATION DAZE

When the school year of 1953-54 began, a new Thorntonite staff started looking for story possibilities and searching for ads. For the inexperienced staff, this was a whole new life. Soon they became "experienced journalists" and life settled down to a not-so-calm hum.

There were lots of hectic days around the Thorntonite office. Pencils always seemed to be missing when a story had to be written. Deadlines always came "just a little too soon". Stories always had to be checked over more than once.

PROOFS AND PICTURES

Ruth Smith, Carol Stanwich, Pat Craig.

Yes—this business of putting out a newspaper and a yearbook was a hectic one, but when the end of the year came along, the now experienced staff discovered they had loved every minute of it.

CIRCULATION

Marilyn Butler, June Schilling, Claudia Deupree.

SPORTS

Bruce Griffin, Charles Kutscher.

DEBATE TEAM

Charmaine Hess, Robert Dearborn, Diane Zarantonello, Dorothy Babiarz.

THORNTON ACTIVITIES

A Thorntonite doesn't spend all his time at his studies. Far from it. He has his choice of the many activities offered by the school.

Most of the clubs are school sponsored, like Pedagogs and the Debate team. The Bookstore and Newspaper Distributors work for the students. Some are on their own, like the Polkateers.

NEWSPAPER DISTRIBUTORS

PEDAGOGS

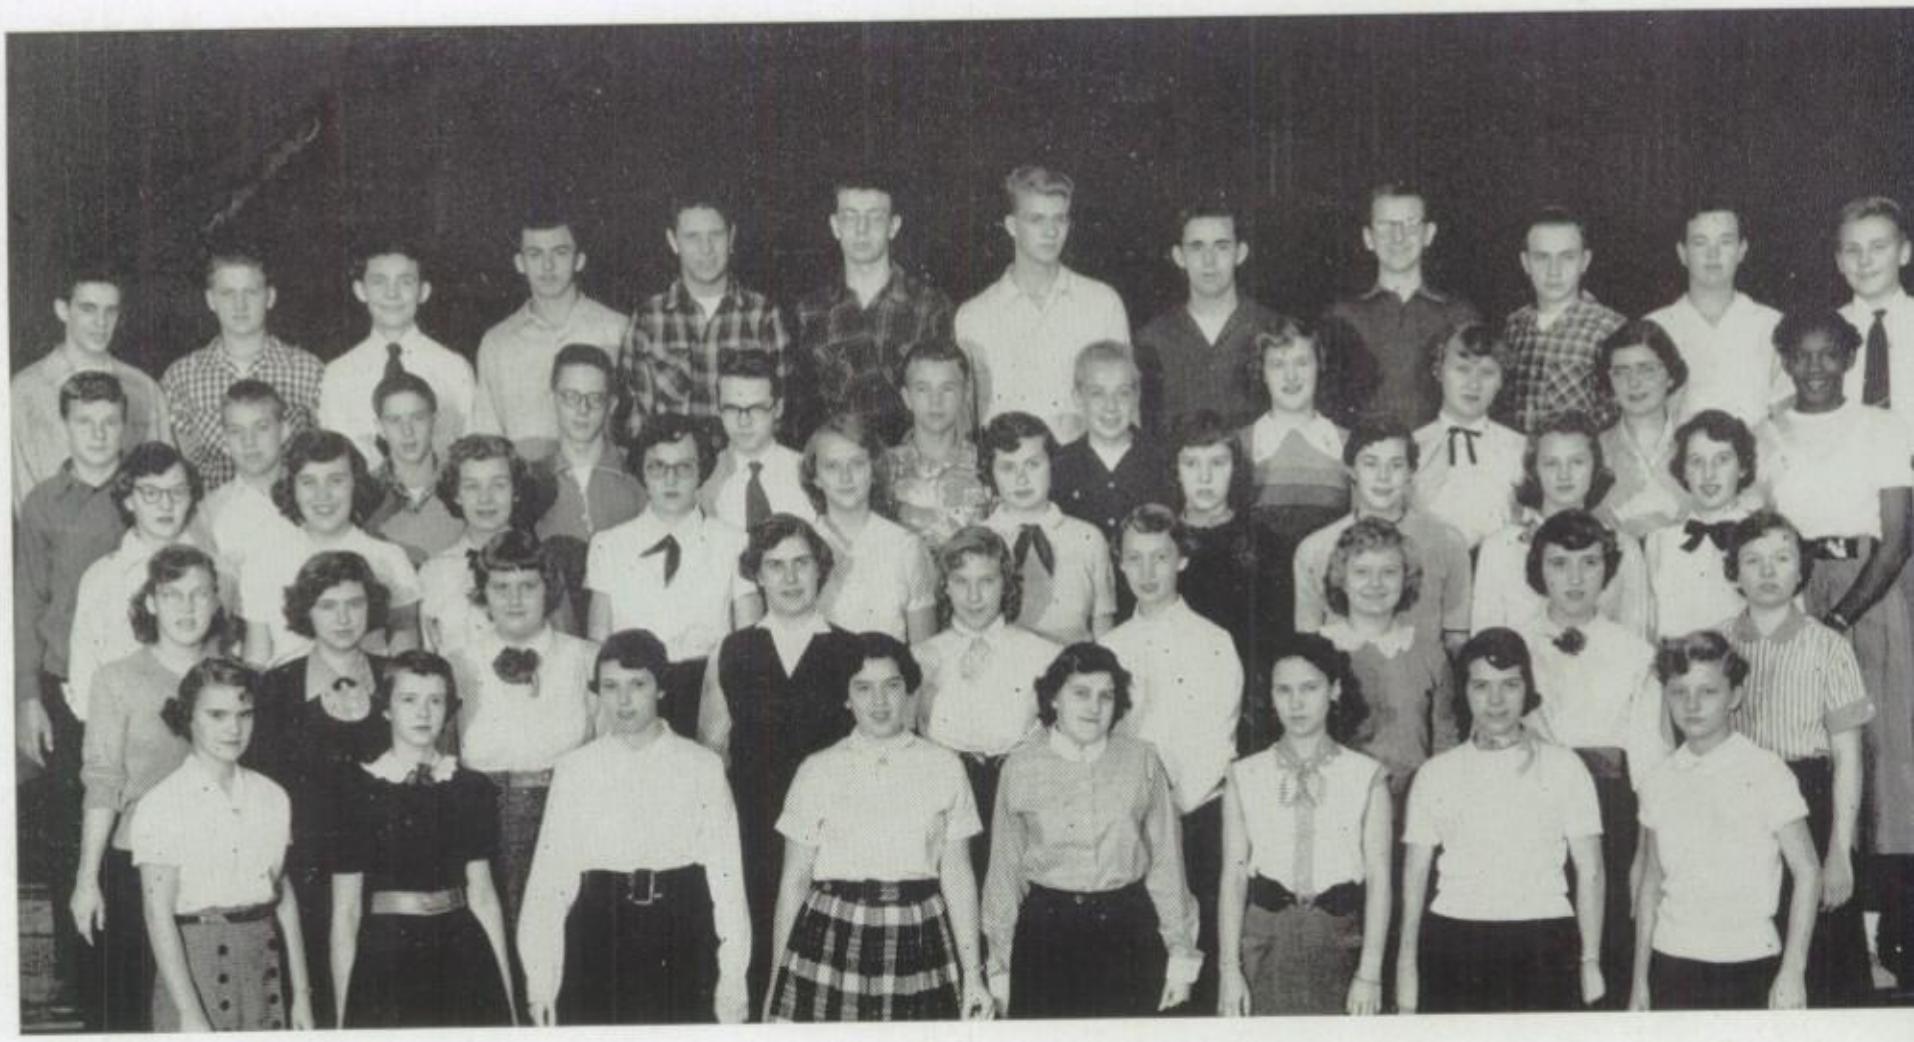
Elaine Gilchrist, secretary, Janel Sopko, president; Carol Schweikert, treasurer; Marilynn Ferkan, vice-president.

BOOKSTORE

Mr. Peterson, Margaret Oppelt, Gerald Bauman.

POLKATEERS

John Tripp, Quin Morrison, Ernest Norden.



LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

POLITICAL SCIENCE CLUB

Row 1: Barbara Fairbairn, Pat Oviatt, John Diamond, Earl Anker.

ORGANIZATIONS

Smooth running of the library is in great part due to the library assistants, who check books in and out, assist with clerical work, and generally make themselves useful to the librarians.

Political Science Club is somewhat like the UN Club, but its projects and discussions, as the name implies, delve deeper into the more political aspects of current events. The group is small but enthusiastic.

54's DANCE BAND

UN CLUB

Raymond Boyens, treasurer; Barbara Fairbairn, vice-president; Pat Oviatt, president; Kathy Paasch, secretary.

54's Dance Band provided music for students at Purple X's and most of the bigger affairs. The Class of '54 is even more proud of the band because it consists entirely of seniors and has been with us since their freshman year.

An ideal organization for those interested in the discussion of today's world problems and in many governmental affairs is the United Nations Club. Guest speakers, movies, and group and panel discussions are a part of the programs. The club is open to any students who want to learn more about world problems and possible solutions.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

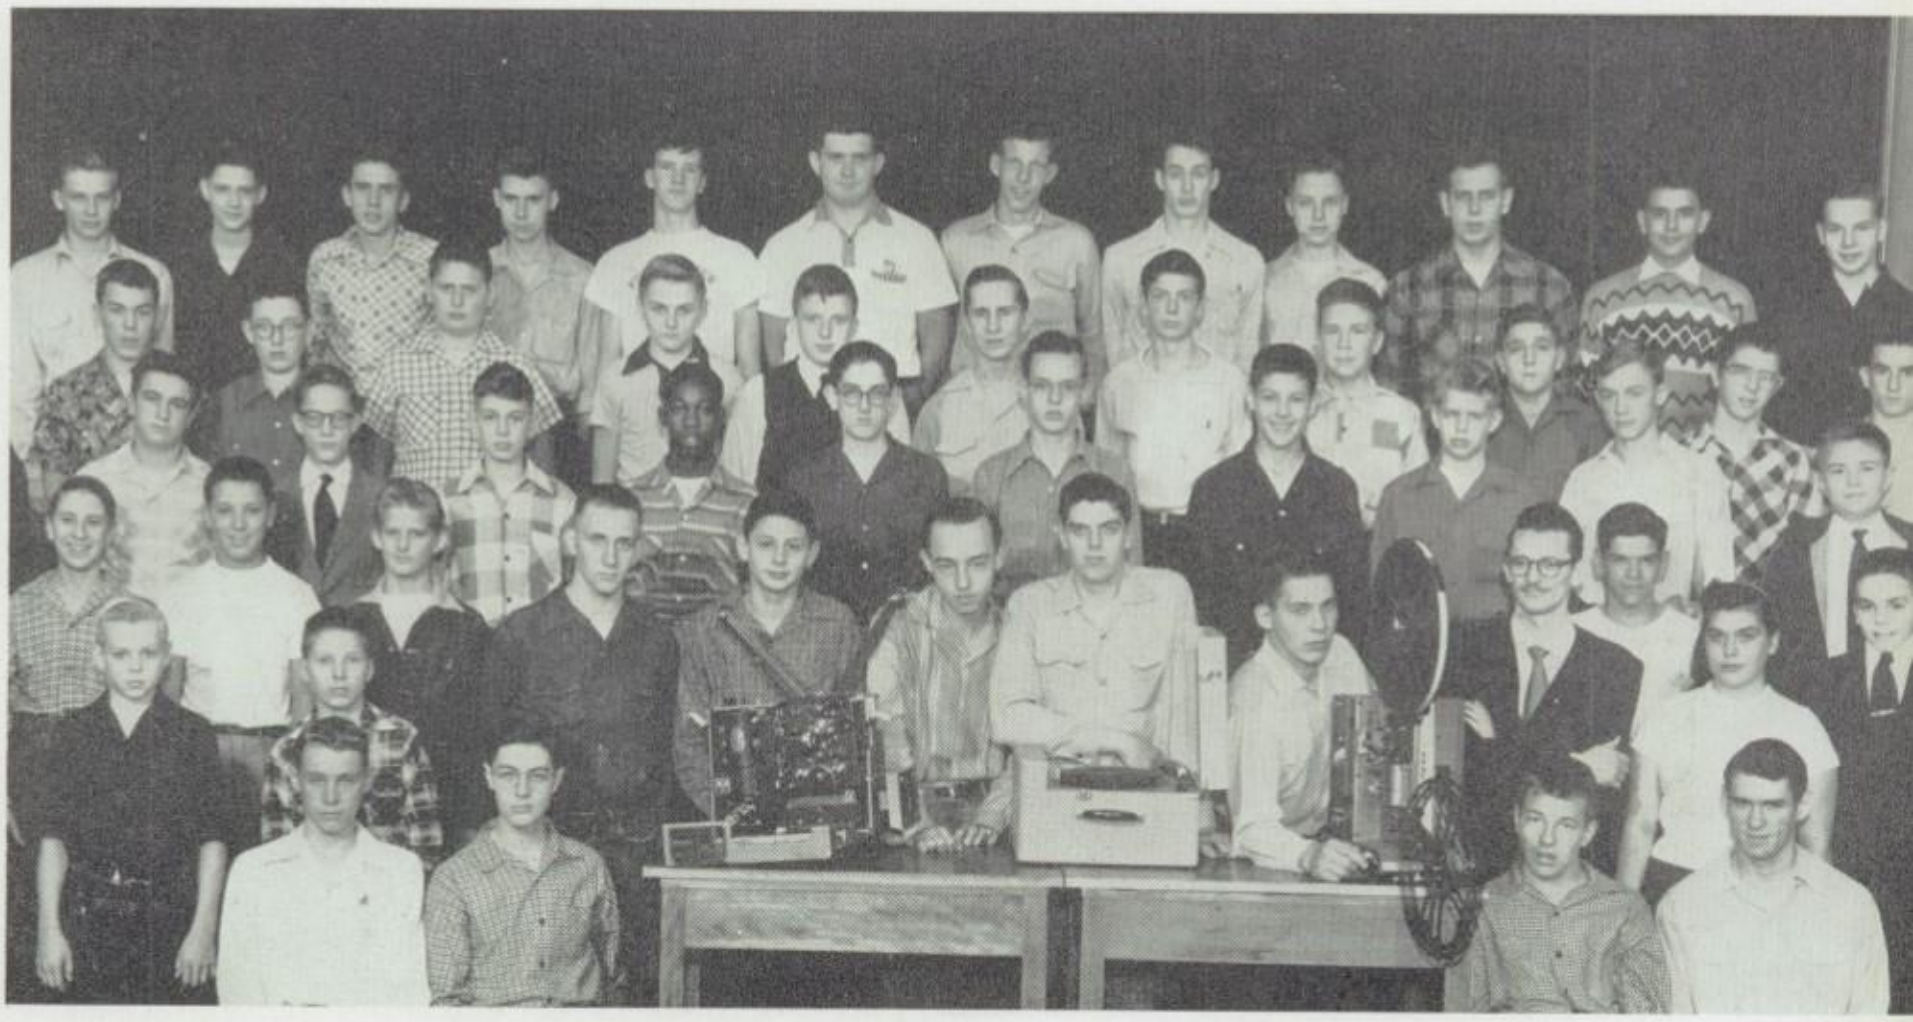
Row 1: Linda Norford, treasurer; Jane Gouwens, secretary. Row 2: Bryan Arveson, vice-president; George Gallati, assistant treasurer, Dick Kloskowski, president.

BOWLING CLUB

Pauline Locicero, secretary; Dorothy Szwet, vice-president; Elaine B. Brown, treasurer; Patricia Hogeveen, president.

Names of juniors and seniors elected to the TTHS chapter of National Honor Society were announced at an all-school assembly on Honors Day. Their parents were special guests. Upperclassmen who had been outstanding in leadership, character, and service, as well as in scholarship, were eligible for election to NHS by the faculty. Officers were selected from the group of juniors to lead their organization the following year.

Bowling Club teams competed weekly and as a unit joined the American Junior Bowling Congress.



ORGANIZATIONS

The Projection Squad was one of the busiest of all the Thornton service groups. It was their job to see that projection equipment was at the right place at the right time and to operate it for classes concerned.

The Harvey Hoofers were on hand to add a gay touch to the entertainment at such social events as the Dad-Daughter Dinner and the stage shows at school dances. Their costumes were as varied as their repertoire.

ORGANIZATIONS

Junior Varsity Band is an organization which prepares musically inclined students for playing in the more advanced Concert Band.

Hi-C, or Hi-Crusaders Club, held weekly meetings after school on Thursdays. Devotional talks and group singing were a regular feature each week. Guest speakers appeared quite often to highlight the programs.

HI C CLUB

Larry Baldwin, vice-president; Johanna Staat, secretary; Barbara Kortge, treasurer; Laura LaRue, president.

HI-TEENS

Cheryl Turngren, president; Audrey Veld, treasurer; Elva Wolf, secretary.

SULTANS HI Y

Bob Harmon, vice-president; Bob Hogancamp, secretary; Stanford Smith, president; Glenn Jones, treasurer.

One of Thornton's clubs affiliated with the Harvey YMCA is the Hi-Teens Tri-Hi-Y. During the year, their activities included a Christmas party and giving a Christmas and a Thanksgiving basket to some needy family in the commurity.

Sultans Hi-Y met on Wednesdays to plan their activities, which included splash parties, dances, various gym activities, and World Service projects such as drives and sales to get money for use in helping to extend the 'Y' work into many foreign countries.

NURSES ASSISTANTS

MEDICAL ARTS STUDENTS

There are many students who are preparing for careers in the medical profession. Thornton has excellent preparation for this field by offering such courses as biology, chemistry, Latin, algebra and home economics.

To further their interests in the medical sciences, students can join Medical Arts Club and the Junior Red Cross.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

Row 1: Janis Freese, secretary; Darlene Powers, vice-president. Row 2: Alberta Bloomer, refreshment chairman; Larry Blandin, president; Loretta Labno, treasurer.

MEDICAL ARTS CLUB

Row 1: Emily Hand, president; Carol Parchem, secretary. Row 2: Carolyn Ryan, vice-president; Myrna Loy, treasurer.

MEDICAL TRAINING

Medical Arts Club members received valuable experience and information relating to their future careers in medicine.

Many spent their free periods assisting in the nurses' office with health records. Members visited local hospitals and received invitations to open-houses at many others. Nursing school catalogs were made available.

SERVICE TRAINING

Junior Red Cross Club participated in a series of projects. In conjunction with the MAC, articles were knitted for the needy. A group visited the Hines Veterans Hospital to distribute material for the disabled.

A special speaker and a movie on the subject of an atomic attack were on the program for one of the meetings. Lively discussion followed.

NURSES OFFICE

Nancy Vena, soaking hand; Jackie Conners, getting ice.

GERMAN CLUB

Row 1: James May, treasurer; Jon Valbert, first vice-president. Row 2: Ann Swenson, president; Dorothy Zimdahl, second vice-president; Joan Rossing, secretary; Virginia Heil, third vice-president.

LATIN CLUB

Row 1: Tom Seemayer, treasurer; Richard Suhs, president; Jim Veld, Sergeant-at-arms. Row 2: Joyce Bielfeldt, secretary; Judy Tysse, vice-president; Gayle Lockwood and Janet Nolting, program chairmen.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

Language clubs are very popular at Thornton. At meetings humorous initiations are held, play skits are presented, and tasty refreshments are served. Holidays are celebrated in the manner that our foreign neighbors observe them. Clubs are sponsored by members of the language faculty and meet once a month

GERMAN CLUB INITIATION

Seated: William Jouris, Lawrence Iwan. Standing: Ilene Pajak, Laurie McCarthy, Dan DeFrank, Janet Walberg.

SPANISH CLUB

CELEBRATIONS

Kris Kringle was guest at the Christmas party given by the German Club. He came with "Der Tannenbaum." Everyone who attended enjoyed eating the famous German pastry served.

At Spanish Club the holiday was celebrated in the traditional Mexican way, with the breaking of the pinata. As the gifts were scattered, everybody made a dive for them.

INITIATIONS

At Latin Club initiation, members who were being inducted wore green wreaths on the heads, similar to those the Latins wore. Initiates were clad in gunny sacks, but members wore togas. French Club inductees offered baskets of candy as appeasement for threats of execution by the guillotine. They were relieved to find it was all in fun.

FRENCH CLUB

Row 1: Ruth Ellis, first vice-president; Karen Zander, refreshments; Goldie Cochrane, president; Barbara Beier, secretary; Carol Sutor, refreshments; Loretta Egofske, assistant treasurer. Row 2: Rhae Bielfeldt, program; Darlene Graefen, assistant secretary; Bob Hogancamp, treasurer; Bob Harmon, program; Alice Bielfeldt, program; Linda Freeman, second vice-president.

FOOTLIGHTERS

Dorothy Zimdahl, treasurer; Don Curry, president; Peggy Heino, vice-president; Donna Hampton, secretary.

"A WEDDING"

FOOTLIGHTER PLAYS

"Button, button, who's got the button?" That was the problem in the Footlighters' first play of the year, "A Wedding." It seems that Bob (Ed Maciejewski), the groom, had lost his collar button. He refused to wear anyone else's. Both Archie (John Tripp), his best man, and Ted (Robert Dearborn), his friend, tried to loan theirs, and even Alice (Elaine Degenhart), the bride, tried to get him one. Finally, when Alice became quite provoked, he gave in and the wedding went off as scheduled.

DRAMATICS

Memorizing lines in the plays was important, but other things were just as much so—like lighting, scenery construction, make-up, and management. The make-up crew carried out the illusion of age and character, and lighting crew gave the proper effects, and the managers made sure the books balanced.

MAKE-UP

Rhae Bielfeldt, Diane Greenburg, Carol Schweichert, Yvonne Moore.

PLAY MANAGERS

Row 1: Porter Hay. Row 2: Katy Neely, Dick Kloskowski, Joy Lambert.

LIGHTING CREW

Tim Hughes as Jocko, Janet Greig as Lorry.

"CURTAIN GOING UP"

A play within a play—that was a big event at Thornton on November 20 and 21. The Boys and Girls clubs presented "Curtain Going Up," a rollicking comedy of a high school group putting on a play.

Play director, Miss Burgess (Dorothy Zimdahl), had quite a time choosing the cast and keeping peace among them. There was a fight for the lead, between Nancy Leveridge (Janet Piel) and Lorry Fuller (Janet Greig). When Lorry got the lead, conflict arose with Andy Fullbright (Mel Katten), Lorry's boy friend, and Norman Carter (Fred Marschner), journalism teacher. Lorry was to have proofs ready for the yearbook, but when proofs as well as play books were missing, things began to pop.

But all ended well when Nancy confessed to the crimes after the show. The cast were all agreed they had fun along with the work.

Janet Piel as Nancy, Bob Facko as Milt.

Mel Katten as Andy, Bruce Griffin as Euck.

Seated: Nancy Vena, an extra; Ruby Boyette, a woman; Carol Schweichert, a woman; Carla Fisher as Kyle Roberts; Toni Ciehkus, an extra; Yvonne Moore, an extra; Marilyn Johnson, an extra. Standing: Sylvia Denham, Joan; Peggy Heino, Sylvia; Alice Bielfeldt, Janet; Jim Ertle, Tony; Tom Davis, Mr. Leveridge; Rhae Bielfeldt, Janet; Gerrie Peterson, Miss Rivers; Claudia Fenwick, Elsie.

The players in "Curtain Going Up" were just like regular Thorntonites. Seeing them up on the stage was like looking into a mirror. All the happy moments and the sorrows of a high school student's life were portrayed in the play.

Fred Marschner as Mr. Carter; Dorothy Zimdahl, Miss Burgess; Carol Stanwich, Miss Moran.

Row 1: Kathleen Neely, 7 of Clubs; Nancy Vena, 5 of Clubs; Carol Lentfer, 3 of Clubs; Sylvia Denham, 3 of Spades; Maryellen Walker, 5 of Spades; Ellen Albrecht, 7 of Spades. Row 2, (left): Carol Stanwich, Cheshire Cat; Barbara Hinkey, Singer; Dorothy Zimdahl, Singer; Laura Petrie, Mouse; Earl Anker, Caterpillar; Sylvia Jacob, Dodo Bird; Donna Hampton, Alice; Judy Scholz, Duck; Louis Ursitti, Gentleman Dressed in White Paper; Yvonne Moore, Train Guard; Janet Greig, Eaglet; Barbara Beier, Sheep; Gerrie Peterson, Duchess; John Diamond, Horse; Alice Bielfeldt, Tweedledee; Rhae Bielfeldt, Tweedledum; Pete Eckstein, Mad Hatter; Marilyn Johnson, Dormouse; Tim Hughes, March Hare; Carol Schweikert, White Queen. Row 2, (right): Pat Oviatt, Red Queen; Keith Johnson, Gryphon; Delia Alden, Mock Turtle; Ray Huttig, Knave of Hearts; Toni Cienkus, Frog Footman; Lois Palmgren, Fish Footman; Mel Katten, Voice; Joan Van Der Vliet, White Rabbit; Joan Brown, Queen of Hearts. Row 3: Bill Bordeaux, Humpty Dumpty (on ladder).

"ALICE IN WONDERLAND"

"Alice in Wonderland," the Senior Class play, was really a wonderland—of work and fun, that is.

Rehearsal time was usually the best. Everyone got the giggles when another member of the cast came out with a funny looking costume.

Earl Anker, Caterpillar; Donna Hampton, Alice.

DRAMATICS

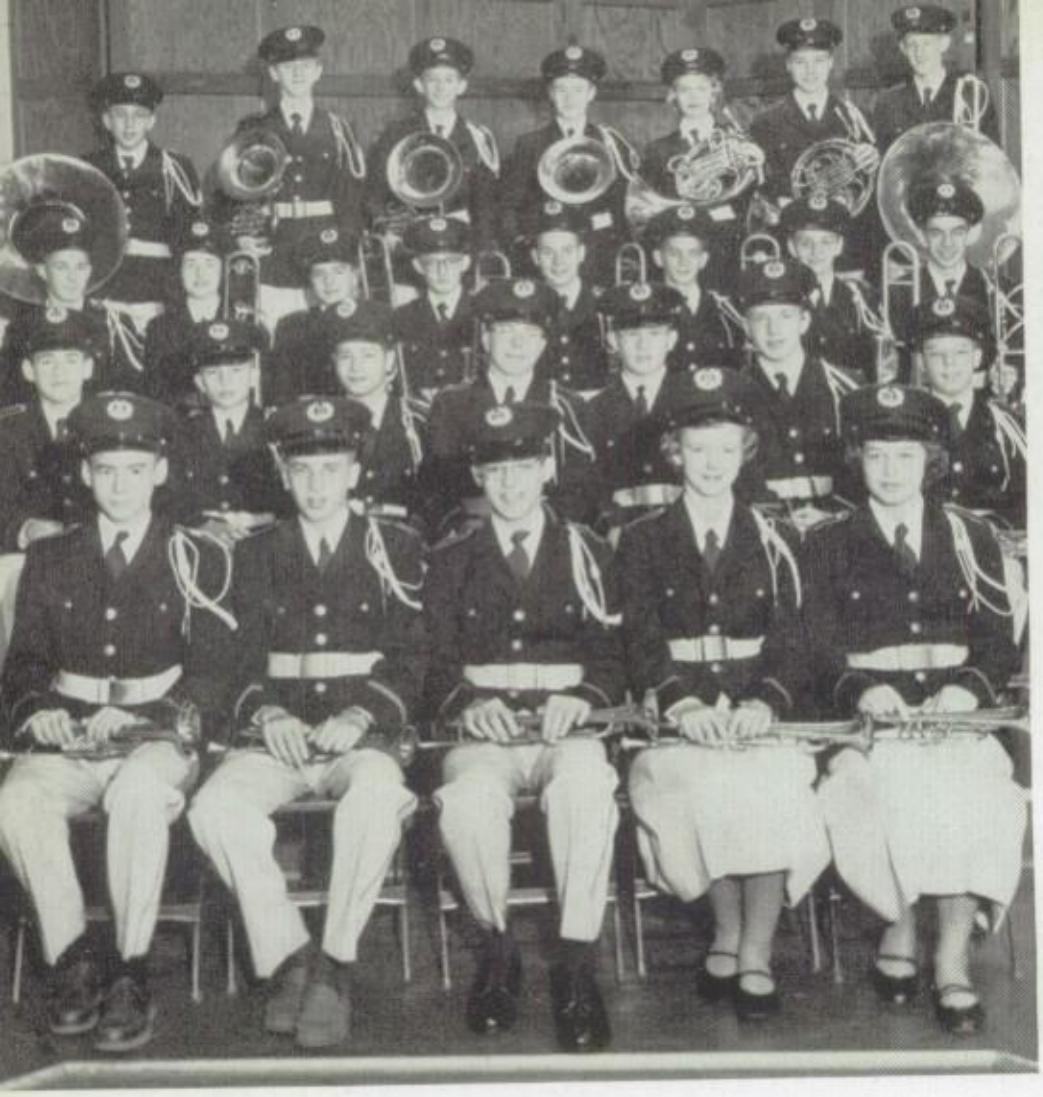
The scene is not turned to the Dramatics class. Most high school students think Dramatics is an easy course, without too much work. There isn't much studying out of class, it's true, until the plays come. Then there is practice every night. By dress rehearsal time, you wonder why you ever took Dramatics. But after the first performance, you know. And what's more, you'd do it again!

Dramatics means more than learning the lines of a script and performing on a stage, however. Students read verses of poetry and strive for perfection in inflection of tone. Making sure to put the d's and t's on the end of words, and getting the right beat, they reread the verse. It's amazing how much better the poem sounds!

Then there is always new information on costumes, scenery, lighting, and makeup. Class members get practical experience.

"Will-o'-the-Wisp". Janet Piel, Will-o'-the-Wisp; Yvonne Langlois, Poet's Wife; Joan Brown, Old Woman; Marilyn Johnson, Maid.

"Thanks Awfully". Row 1: Yvonne Langlois, Mrs. Dodd; Clarence Lyke, Dick; Carol Johnson, Marion; Marybob Ewan, Ann; Toni Cienkus, Nanette; Kathy Paasch, Jane. Row 2: Barbara Bukowski, Carolyn; Linda Freeman, Mrs. Dower; Lois Palmgren, Dot; Gayle Lockwood, Edith; Marilyn Day, Carol; Elaine Degenhart, Enid; Judy Scholz, Mrs. Hemingway.



BRASS

Row 1: Ronald Thompson, Jim Brougham, Bob Hodge, Judy Larson, Cheryl Turngren. Row 2: John Peiguss, Bill Weiser, Joe Yadron, Robin Pebworth, Ronnie Beck, Donald Schnake, Larry Canada. Row 3: Ronald Spooner, Janet Harnish, Richard Van Dommelen, Kenneth Mullins, Bob Perry, Bill Bracy, Don DeYoung, Robert Bernard. Row 4: Larry Weaver, Charles Duke, Jim Harvey, Tom Van Dommelen, Ann Holtgren, Robert Doster, James Groskopf.

PERCUSSION

TTHS BAND

The Band, which was begun in 1916, has four main objectives along with just playing music. These are to continue helping to develop music appreciation, to form competent performers, to lend color to school events, and to provide wholesome activities for students.

FLUTES AND DOUBLE REEDS

Row 1: Barbara Burdine, Myrna Lear, Janet Clark. Row 2: Anne Gordon, Edward Watson, Jane Gouwens.

OFFICERS

Row 1: Marilyn Greiner, secretary; Bill Lyon, treasurer. Row 2: Tim Hughes, president; Bob Bernard, vice-president.

CLARINETS AND SAXOPHONES

Row 1: Barbara Fairbairn, Bill Lyon, Lois Holtgren, Ronald Van Mynen, Mark Stricker, Marilyn Greiner, Donna Rohlman. Row 2: Judy Kazen, Cleo Figley, Linda Bergold, Linda DeBeikus, Annette Wetmore, Leanne De Line, Carol Burt, Phillip McClintock, Jerry Weiser. Row 3: Bruce Furry, Nancy Gouwens, Norman Ehlert, James French, Manuel Currier, Al Pinger, Bill Gardiner, Fred Koester, Marilyn Sudds, Tom Pearson, Calvin Hicks.

CONCERT BAND

Concert band is a small, more select group, which has given performances at the Spring Festival and their Twenty-third Annual Concert, and at other civic events. In addition, the band has gone on tour to many places, among them Detroit and Dearborn, Michigan, and the Universities of Michigan and Indiana.

MARCHING BAND

Marching Band has played for all-school ball games. It has also participated in community events such as parades and special occasions. During the time that sports are going on, the band divides into two groups, the "Pep-Bands" that play for all-school pep sessions.

OFFICERS

Ann Holtgren, treasurer; Gerald Johnson, vice-president; Bob Facko, president; Binnie Braun, secretary.

STRINGS

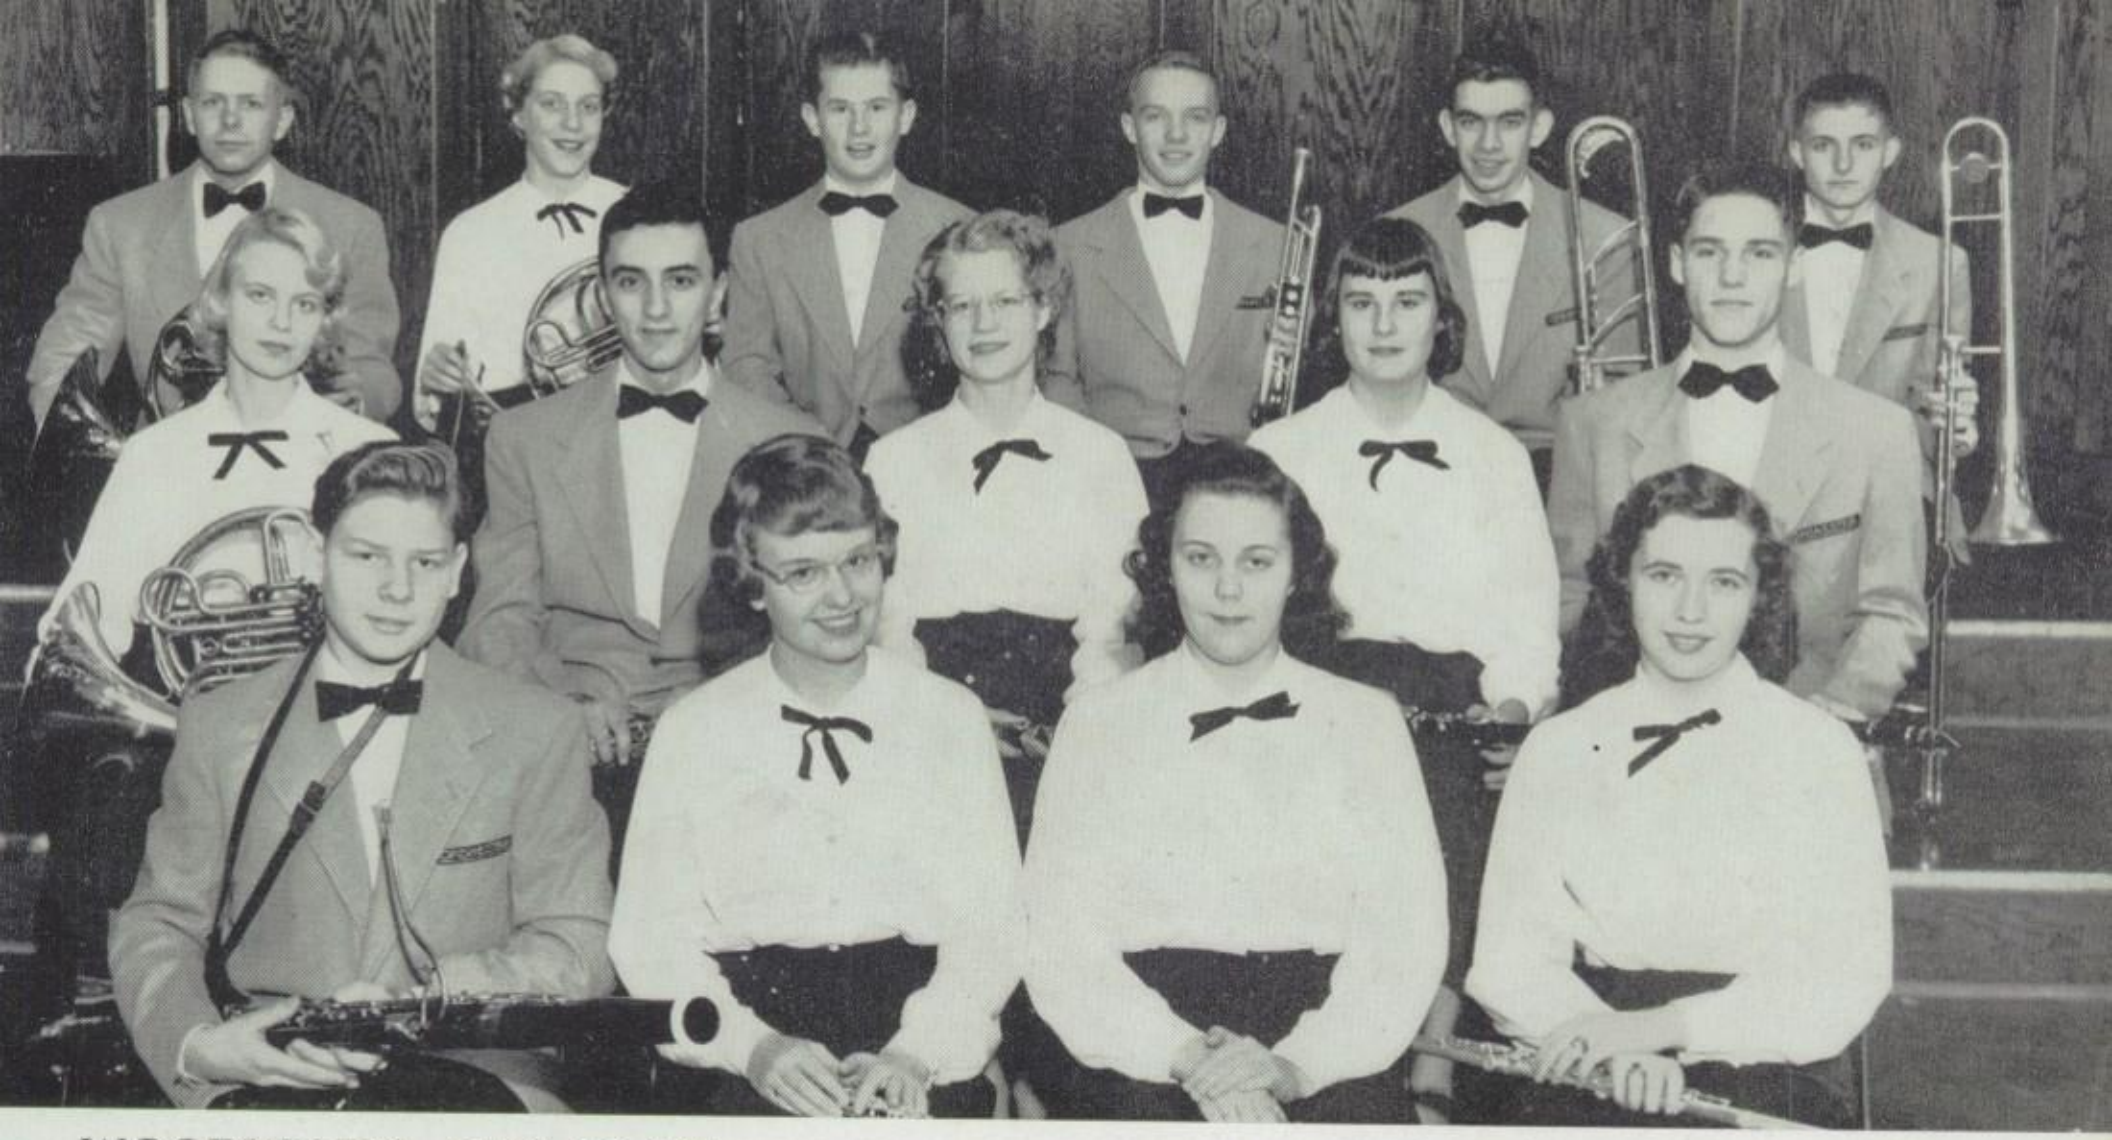
Row 1: Marilyn Greiner, Linda Schaefer, Judy Tysse, Laurel Pfab, Nancy Brennan, Sandra Skye, Susan Morse, Suzanne Birkhead. Row 2: Nadine Ehlert, Sue Rodenburg, John Schrader, Joan Rossing, Judy Williams, Janel Sopko, Elaine Degenhart, Binnie Braun, Quin Morrison. Row 3: Joan Eix, Richard Brown, John Tripp, Norman Nelson, Gerald Johnson, Edward Mrozek, Dan Simkins, Goldie Cochrane.

PARENTS ASSOCIATION

The object of the Band and Orchestra Parents Association is to promote the general welfare of the Band and Orchestra in cooperation with the school authorities and to assist the directors and the school in carrying out approved activities of the two music units.

Membership is open to parents of students who play in the band or orchestra. The organization has regular meetings the second Monday of each month.

This group sponsors and organizes dances, travelogues, tag days, and other similar projects to raise funds to pay for concert tours, equipment, and uniforms for both the band and the orchestra.



WOODWINDS AND BRASS

TTHS ORCHESTRA

The TTHS Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Jack M. Pernecky, serves as a training ground for study and appreciation of concert music. It has played for high school and junior college plays, the Spring Festival, the Christmas Concert, Optimist Club Forum, and various school assemblies. It has regularly furnished members for the Chicago Youth Orchestra.

Row 1: Bob Facko, Jim Ertle, Tim Hughes, Nancy Manville.

CHORAL MUSIC

Choral music was very much a part of the school lives of many Thorntonites who were interested in music.

They sang in Girls Glee Club, or in Boys Glee Club, in Mixed Chorus, Choir, the Keydets, or the Madrigal Singers. Many were not content with singing in only one of these groups but participated in several.

Within these groups the students had the thrill of being in the various concerts. Especially important were the Christmas Concert and the Spring Festival.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Silence in a darkened auditorium—then the first faintly audible strains of "Good Christian Men Rejoice" grew slowly louder as the members of Mixed Chorus came down the aisle, lighting the way with the candles they carried.

The processional was the beginning of the Christmas Concert in which all the choral groups and orchestra participated. Old Christmas music and some that was new to us, really got everyone into the Christmas spirit.

The concert was presented twice, once for the public and once for all Thorntonites at a special assembly.

FRESHMAN GLEE CLUB

Many Thorntonites get their introduction to choral music in the Freshman Girls Glee Club.

After faithful practicing of harmony, tone, timing, and that extra something that makes a chorus act as one unit, they begin to have experiences that are important firsts.

Their first participation in the concert at Christmas and the enjoyment that comes from bringing Christmas music to the audience is something they will not soon forget.

In the spring they finish off their year of music with the Spring Festival. Many like it so well they continue in choral groups the rest of their years at Thornton.

SPRING FESTIVAL

Spring—with all its sunshine and blue sky, bird songs and laughter, the perfect time for music and a festival—the Spring Festival at Thornton.

All the music groups participated in it, both choral and instrumental. There were numbers by the Freshman Glee Club, Girls Glee Club, Boys Glee Club, Mixed Chorus, Girls Choir, and the Band and Orchestra.

Numbers by the Festival Chorus, which consisted of all the choral groups combined, really made the rafters of the gym ring.

As has been the usual custom, there was competition earlier in the spring among the pianists to determine the one who was to be soloist.

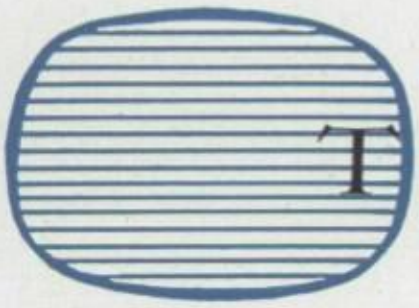
WRESTLING

Willie Bankhead, Jack Marchello, Coach Ted Czech.



THORNTON IS SPORTS

Championship teams are not unusual at Thornton. Football, basketball, track, wrestling, baseball, and swimming teams walk off with honors almost yearly. They help to make Thornton a name to be proud of! But inter-school sports aren't the only types offered. GAA for girls and Intramurals for boys are popular too. Sports such as ping-pong, golf, and tennis are played in gym classes. Physical education is good at Thornton.

LETTERMEN

Election to the Lettermen's Club is a signal honor for any athlete to achieve. The object of this club is the establishment of higher standards in the high school sportsmanship. The projects of the club each year include sale of programs at athletic events and the sale of refreshments at every athletic event except football. Profits finance the banquet.

Row 1: Dave Bensen, first vice-president; Al Lowery, president. Row 2: Glenn Willing, treasurer; Rodney Hanson, secretary; Fred Bunch, sergeant-at-arms; Jack Marchello, second vice-president.

GAME USHERS

Present at each home football and basketball game, this group of boys tackled the immense task of corraling the enthusiastic Thornton fans. They had their rough moments and their patience was sorely tried on many occasions. The ushers are an essential part of TTHS.

Row 1: Robert Slevnik, Nile Limbaugh, Porter Rogers. Row 2: Delbert Emerick, Harry Hobbs, Les Gardner, Forrest Jackson. Row 3: Gordon La Rue, Tim Sutton, Robert Ofcky, Dave Sailors, Ted Sturm, adviser.

TWIRLERS

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

"Come on gang, yell!" That is a familiar cry to many Thornton fans who remember the cheerleaders' all-out efforts which built up the big morale of the school and a school spirit which urged our team on for victory more than once in football and basketball competition.

Row 1: Dianne Whitman, Janet Piel, Sharon Zirbes. Row 2: Betty Gordon, Claudia Fenwick, Nance Chisser. Row 3: Marilyn Rusgis, Gail McDermot.

J V CHEERLEADERS

Junior varsity cheerleaders were on hand at all sophomore football and basketball games to help cheer the team to victory. Sports would not be the same if we did not have the corps of twirlers who led the band in football formations and so many other halftime performances.

Row 1: Patt Carroll, Nancy Lincoln, Sandra Jehu, Joy Walker. Row 2: Maryesther Hansen, Pat Shuler, Lois Cohenour, Lynnette Corrie.

COACHES

Thornton's coaching staff is the big reason why Thornton has turned out consistently good teams in all sports. Their long hours of practice and hard work really show results every time Thornton gains a new championship. Thorntonites do not have to brag about any of the coaches; the records do that.

VARSITY— J V SQUADS

SPOTTERS

The unsung heroes of all home football games are the men at the spotters bench. Mr. Sutor is the official time keeper and score keeper. He regulates the electric score board. One of the others uses the telephone to communicate with an observer who is above the field. The observer tells of the efficiency of the formations and the individual performance of each player.

FROSH-SOPH FOOTBALL

THORNTON—20 MORGAN PARK—13

Brooks Young trotted eighty-five yards for one of three Cat TDs, only the beginning of a profitable season.

THORNTON—0 EAST ROCKFORD—0

The Wildcats rated only a goose egg for their efforts at E. Rockford. No one was able to dent the enemy line.

THORNTON—20 ARGO—0

The Cats torpedoed the sailors, as Benson, Hanson, and Young all made TDs. Marchello, Bunch were line stars.

THORNTON—27 DANVILLE—0

Thornton's defense not only stalled Danville, but beat them. Deupree, Hanson, and Niemiec all scored.

THORNTON—33 BLOOM—6

Bloom, the big threat, was crushed. Highlights were Emerick's passing, and Young's running.

THORNTON—31 BLUE ISLAND—0

The Brooks Young-Dave Benson army teamed up with the Chuck Emerick-Rod Hanson air force to pluck the embarrassed Cardinals. The Cats took over the league lead.

THORNTON—33 LEYDEN—7

The Cats were once again league champions. Brooks Young gained 220 yards and made four touchdowns.

THORNTON—55 THORNTON FRACTIONAL—0

First undefeated season since 1938! A new conference scoring record was set by Brooks Young with 14 TDs.

SQUADS

An undefeated record is always a thing to be proud of and freshman football players have gained just such a record. Six times they overcame their opponents to compile a neat 6-0 season record. Big things can probably be expected from them in the future.

The sophomores did not do quite so well as they compiled a record of five wins, two defeats, and one tie. Perhaps most notable of these were the 32-6 win over Morgan Park and the 27-0 defeat of Argo. Rockford and Leyden beat the kittens.

FRESHMAN SQUAD

A GOOD YEAR

'53 was a great year for both Thornton and the South Suburban League. All the Cat squads had fine season records, while the league, as a whole, was stronger than in previous years.

Ted Czech's wrestlers and Frank Froschauer's swimmers captured the league cups in those sports. Kankakee beat Tom Nisbet's Cats to take the league round-ball championship. Thornton had revenge in the spring when Bob Blaha's varsity Cats took the baseball honors. Frank Bauman's varsity trackmen were unable to stop the Bloom thinclads, who took the track championship. In the fall Tiny Huddlestun's varsity football squad was second to none. They beat the best the league could offer and found little competition anywhere. The Cats had their first undefeated season since 1938.

Dave Benson (38) leads the interference as Brooks Young (35) goes around right end for a TD against Blue Island.

Below—Chuck Signeri dives in to flatten a Blue Island ball carrier tackled by Jack Marchello (behind carrier).

Left—Al Lowery (22) picks up three yards around left end in Thornton's 31-0 homecoming victory.

Jules Hayes evades Thornton Fractional's tackler as he races for a TD in the third quarter. Kittens won, 20-6.

Thornton's defensive wall shifts over to smash a Blue Island play. Tackling is Chuck Signeri. Others are Skippy Allison (40), kneeling, Don Morris (55), Fred Bunch (41), and Marchello (28) in the background.

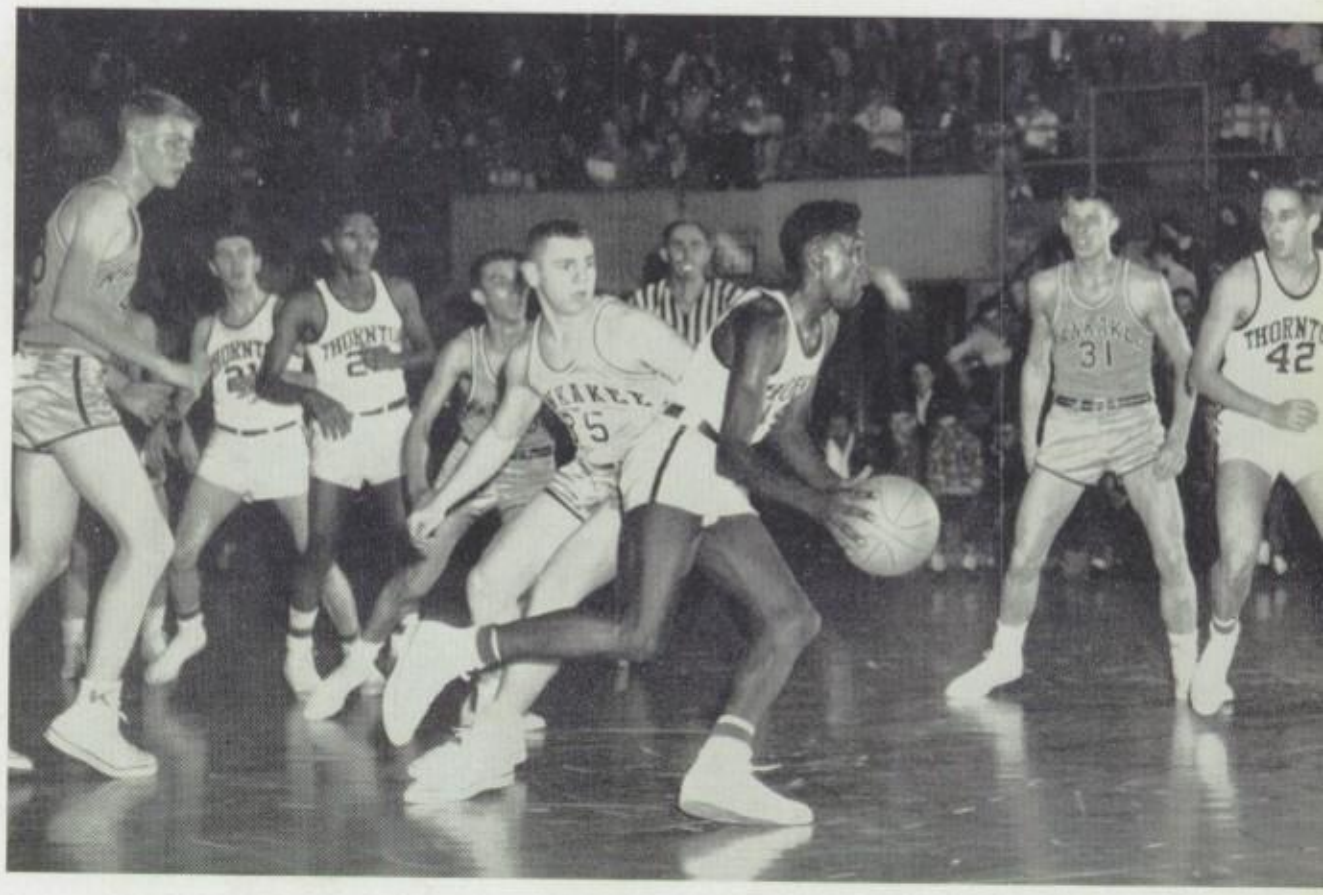
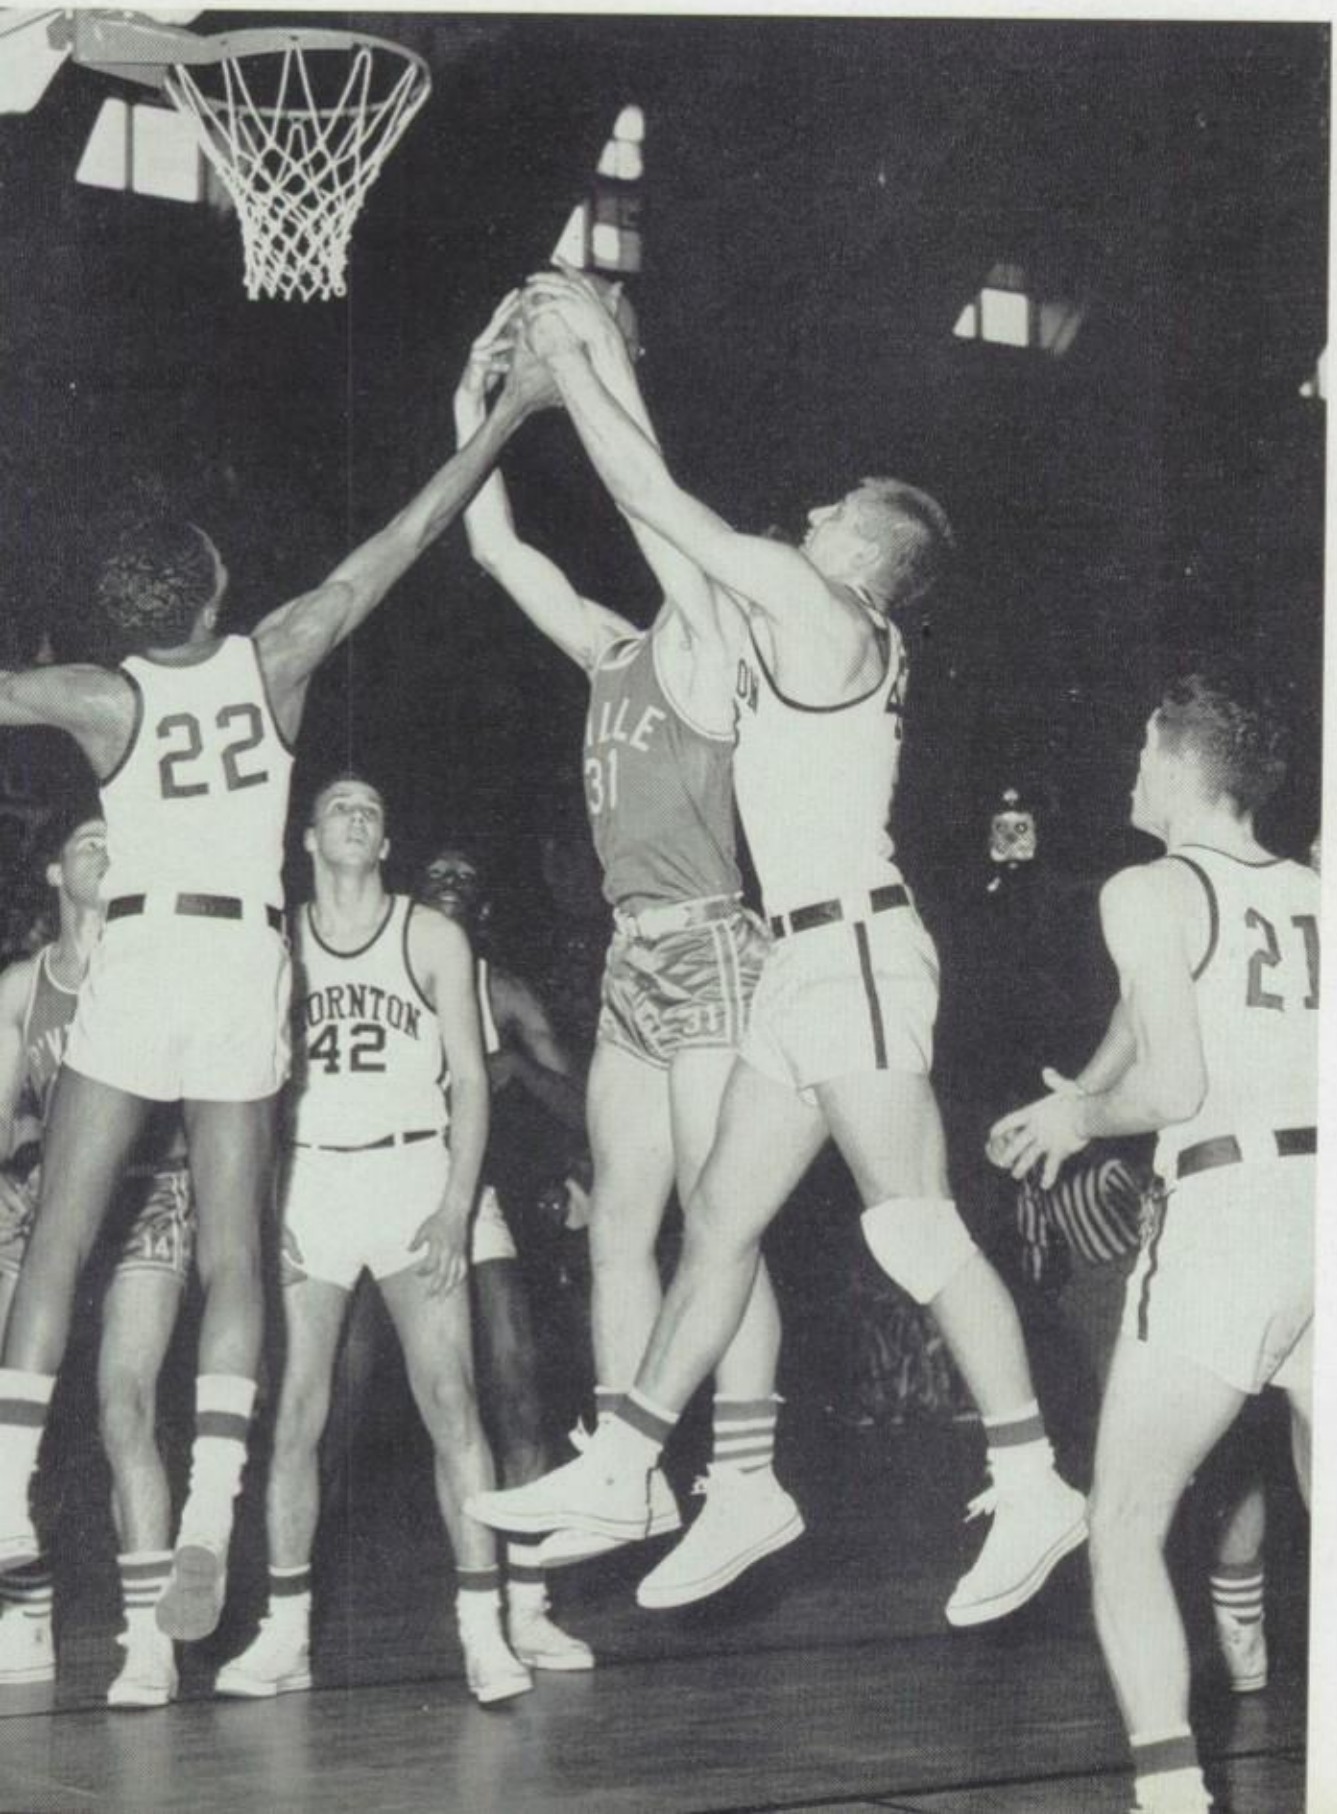
SEASON

Winter brought a change in the athletic picture at Thornton. Coach Tom Nisbet began working in earnest to whip up a winning basketball team. He did, and as the picture changes again with the coming of spring, Thornton remembers the team won both the regional and sectional tournaments, the team that had a record of 25-7, and was one of the top eight in the "Sweet Sixteen."

The Jay Vees had a record of 6-5.



Ed Creach, speedy junior, races around his man as Al Lowery, Verne Allison, and Russ McKibben watch hopefully in the Kankakee game.



Verne Allison and Rod Hanson take to the air to contest possession of the ball in the Pinckneyville game during the state tourney.

SOPHOMORES

The sophomore squad ended their season boasting ten victories against three defeats. They finished in third place, behind Kankakee and Leyden.

Season highlights included a 61-46 win over Leyden, a 46-40 win over Kankakee, a 52-39 victory over Blue Island, and a 43-40 defeat of Bloom.

Bob Miller tries to evade a reaching defense in the sophomore battle with Blue Island.

FRESHMEN

Thornton's freshman basketeers came through a successful season with a record of ten wins and three defeats. High points of the season were the 50-21 victory over Leyden, a 39-33 win over Bloom, and a unanimous defeat of Rich when the freshmen hit for 75 points.

Leading scorers were Milton Tucker with 153, Dinky Hayes with 132, and Rich Brown with 130.

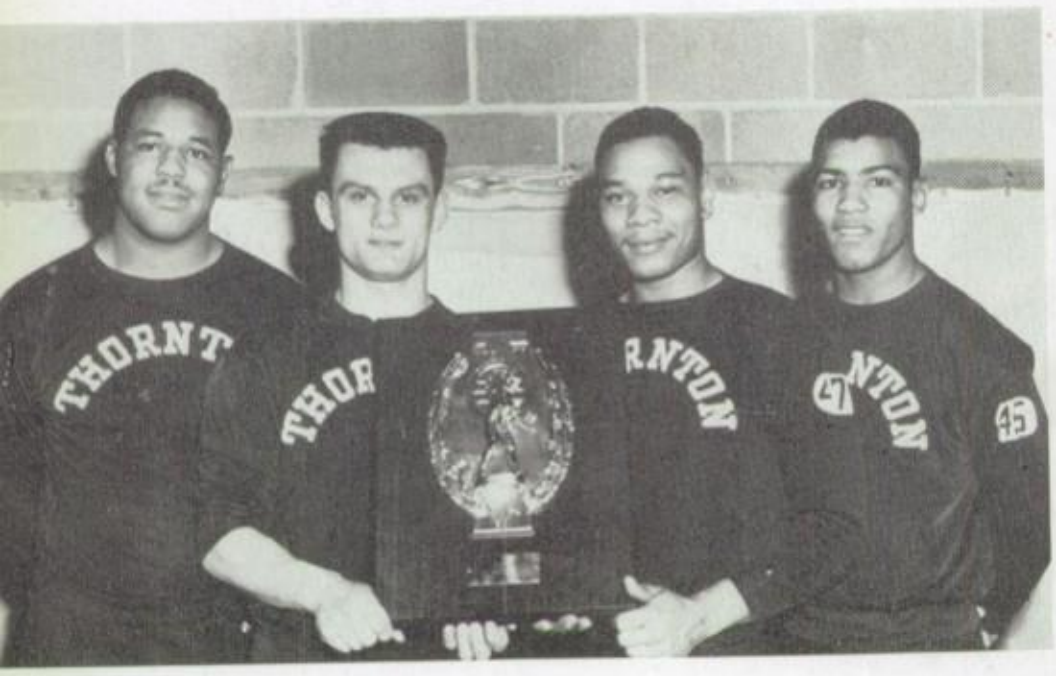
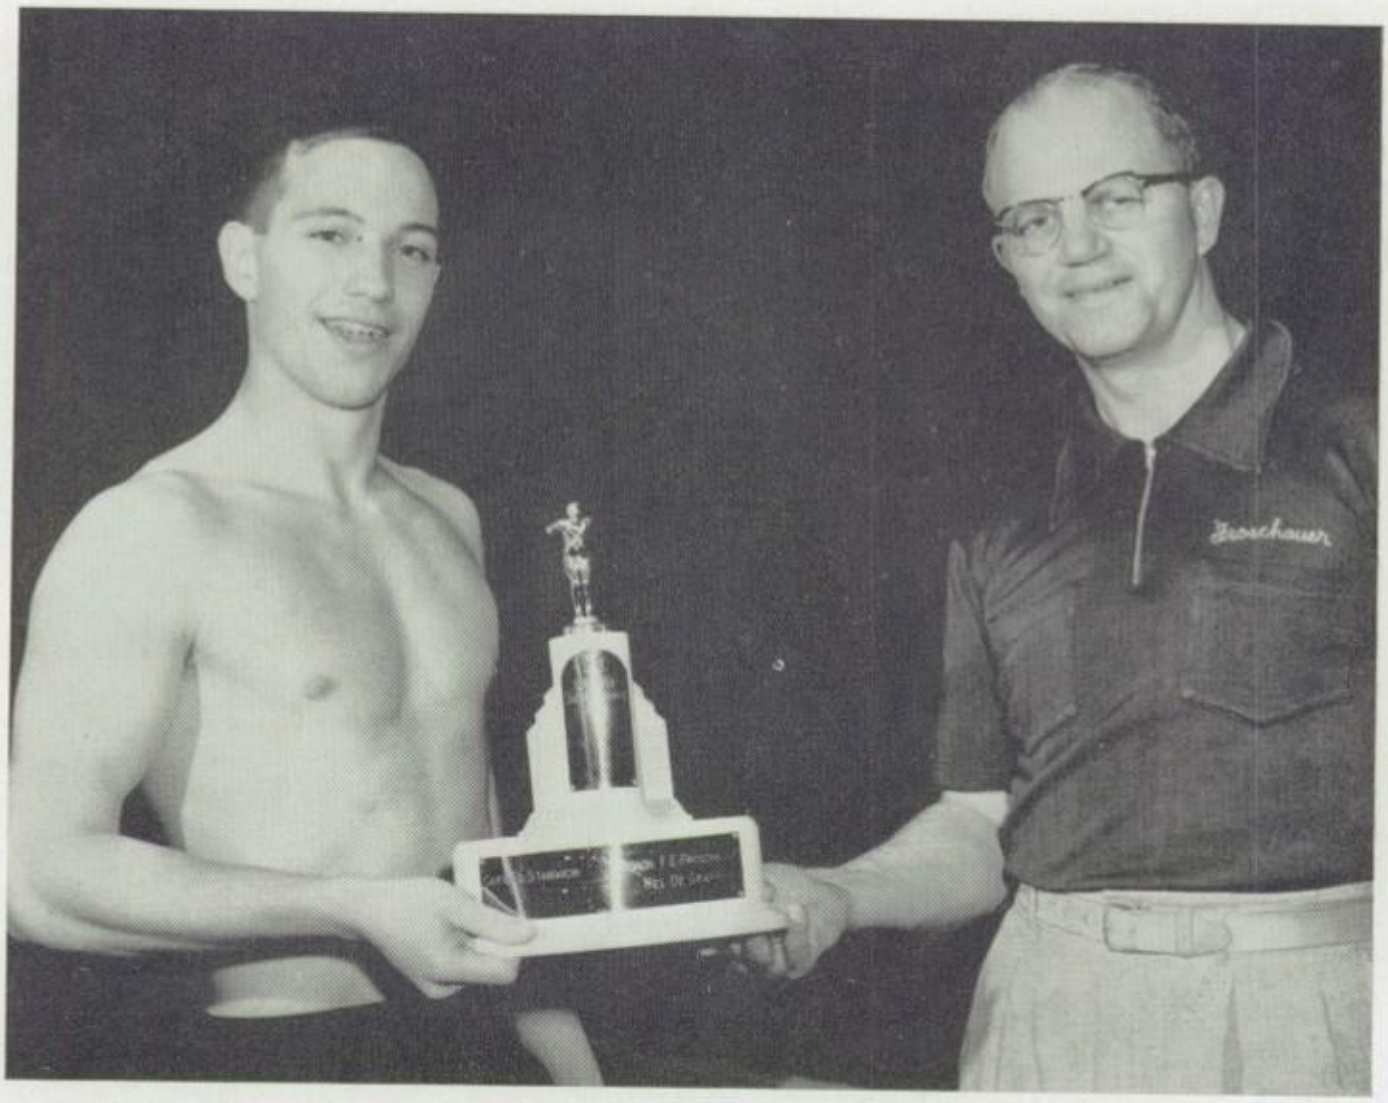
TROPHY WINNERS

Thornton's state champion wrestling team smile over the trophy they brought to Thornton. Don Morris, Jack Marchello, Willie Bankhead, Ben Crisler.



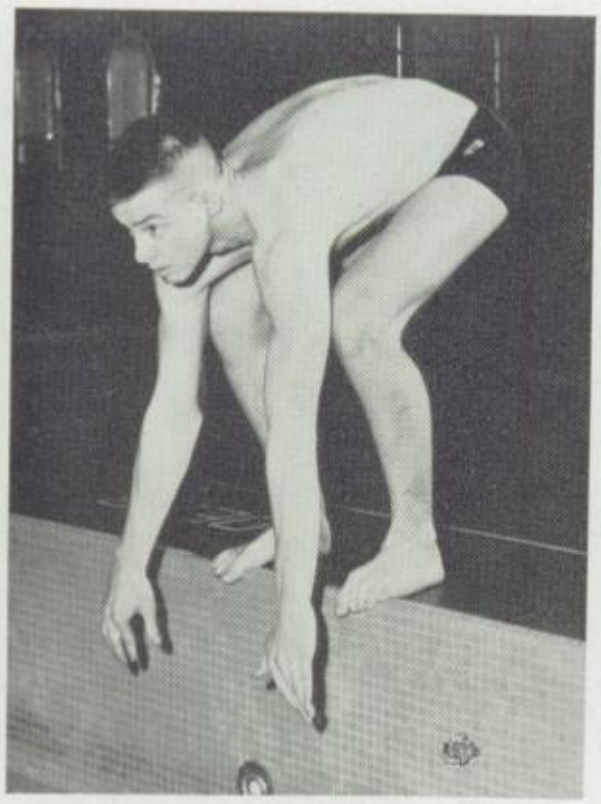
Four of Thornton's matmen qualified for the state meet: Benny Crisler, 145 lbs.; Willie Bankhead, 156 lbs.; Jack Marchello, 175 lbs.; and Don Morris, heavyweight. Individually, three of them—Benny Crisler, Jack Marchello, and Don Morris—won firsts, and Willie Bankhead took second place, but as a team they brought the state championship to Thornton.

Coach Froschauer's swimming team produced several outstanding swimmers this year. High on the list is Tom Walker, an individual medley expert who led the team with 109 points. Jim Hoffman, the leading backstroker, set a new backstroke record of 1:07.6. Bryan Arveson, captain, Gordon Rehberg, Jim Hoffman, and Bill Wassner failed to qualify at the state meet.



Captain Bryan Arveson and Coach Frank Froschauer hold the first-place trophy won in the all-conference meet at Fractional.

Jim Hoffman, Thornton's speedy backstroker, looks over Thornton's pool, where he set a new record in the conference meet.



Gordon Rehberg, leading free styler, prepares for a flying start.

Thornton's high point man was Tom Walker, who captured many points in the individual medley meet.

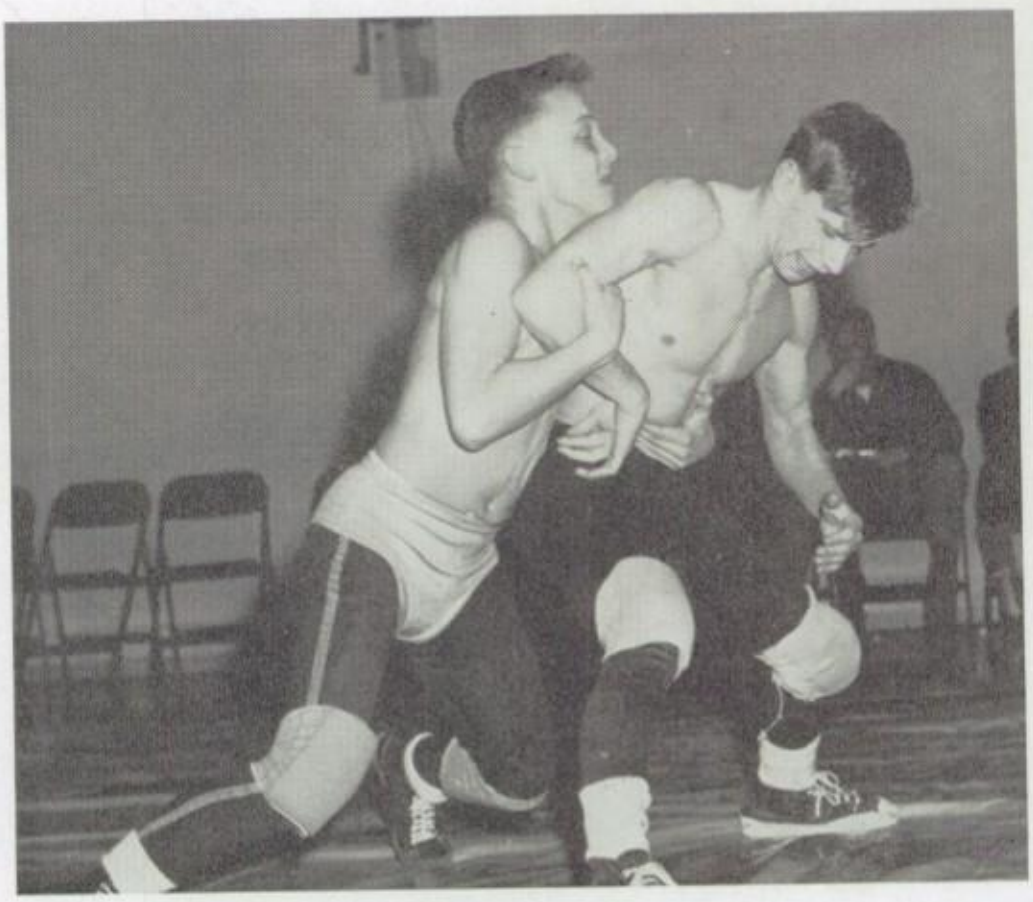
WRESTLING

Ted Czech's varsity wrestling squad had a very successful season as the wrestlers compiled a team score of fifty-one to take the league championship. They were second only to the Oak Lawn team in the sectional wrestling tournament. Thornton won the state championship with a score of twenty-four.



Leggo! is the sentiment expressed by Thornton's Bob Wargin (standing) as his Waukegan opponent playfully twists his right arm.

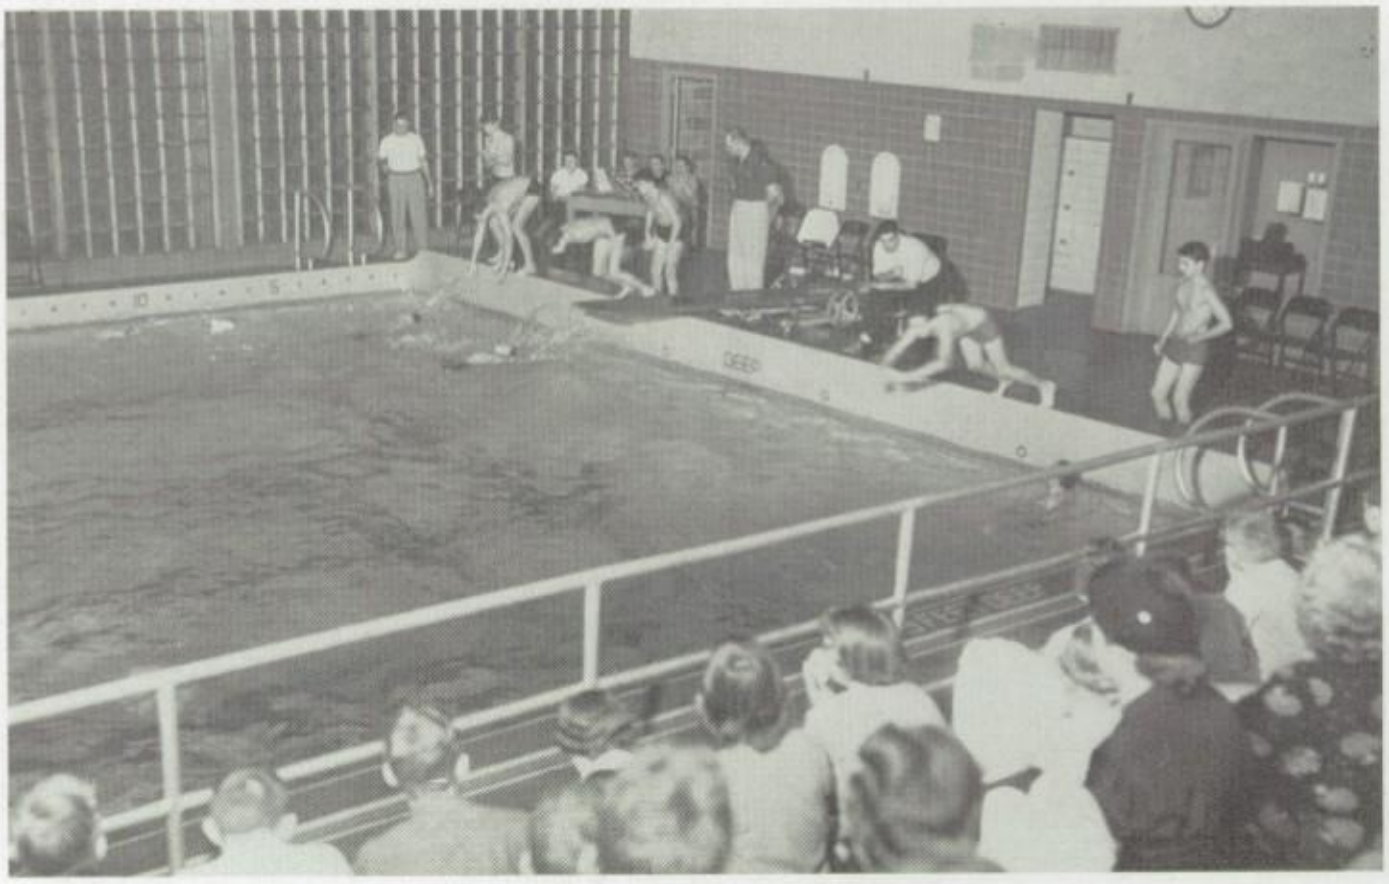
FROSH-SOPH SEASON

Frosh-soph wrestlers had a good season, too, winning ten matches while losing only one. Jack Robinson coached the underclassmen to their victories, and when the going got tough, dependable Robby was always there to make it a little easier.



Tension is high during a relay event in Thornton's pool.

SWIMMING

Once again the varsity swimmers earned for themselves the South Suburban League championship. They also set a record for high scoring in the conference meet. They took every first and second place and both relays for a total of 92 points.

They compiled an eight and three record with victories over Fractional, Argo, Riverside, Niles, Morton, and Whiting.

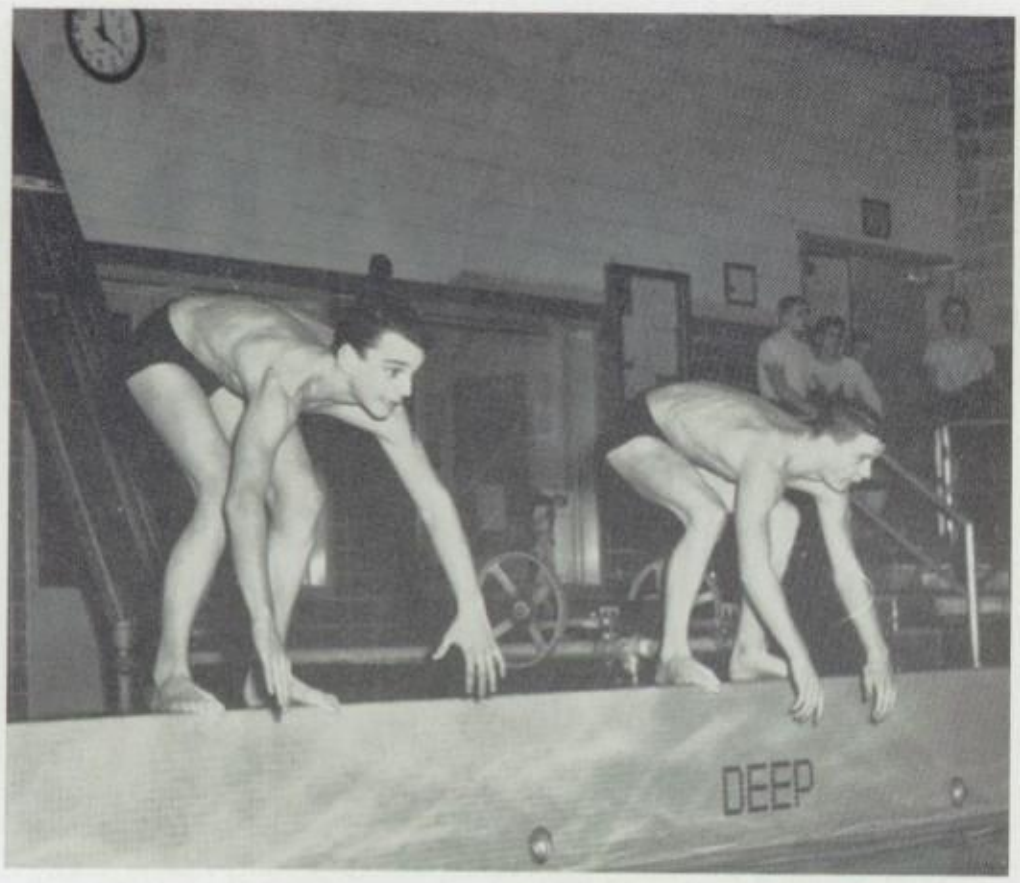
UNDERCLASSMEN

Coach DeGraff's swimmers can look back on a rather successful season. They have recorded victories over Argo, Fractional, Brookfield, and Niles.

They also won the first frosh-soph league championship. They edged out Fractional 68 to 65 as they captured two first places and took a relay and the diving.

Thornton is fortunate in having such a fine pool to help produce consistently good swimmers.



Chuck Welivar and Tom Clark prepare for a flying start during a meet.

Row 1: Coach Bob Blaha, Laddie DeVore, Larry Malm, Bob Cima, Elliot Marovich, Bob Flores. Row 2: Charles Weise, manager, Gordon, Ring, Chuck Emerick, Bob Neath, Dick Bennot, Dick Kloskowski. Row 3: Ed Shields, Martin Gager, Lonnie Austin, Russ McKibben, Ed Creach, Bob Hames, Jack Foster. Row 4: Bob Bray, Larry Dudek, Al Medrano, Bruce Griffin, Benny Crisler, Trent Owings.

BASEBALL

After the league champion Wildcats won their first three league games, the big pitching problem seemed smaller with the promise showed by Martin Gager, a sophomore, and Ed Shields, a junior. The catching problem was solved with sophomore Lonnie Austin.

The infield of Bob Neath, Larry Malm, Bob Flores, and Dick Bennot was all-senior except for junior Dick Bennot. The outfield of Bob Cima, a senior, and juniors Benny Crisler and Laddie DeVore, had speed to spare.

Dick Bennot (batting), Lonnie Austin (catching), and Coach Bob Blaha look hard for another league championship.

Dick Wickersham and Larry Taylor really open up as they ready for another track season. Captain Cliff Deupree times them.

Row 1: Coach Frank Bauman, Richard Lively, Dave Benson, Rod Hanson, Larry Taylor, Dave Wickersham, Coach Jack Robinson. Row 2: Tom Williams, Cliff Deupree, Bob Hansen, Al Jeske, Brooks Young, Bob Godwin. Row 3: Ken Hellstrom, George Harrop, Jan Zapchenk, Terry Costello, Bryan Arveson, Curtiss Whitted, Darnell Sanford. Row 4: Roger Fosdick, Roy Gonzales, Frank Babiarz, Don Swan, Paul Edgell, Gus Hoyer, Don Morris, Tom Mulroney, manager, Porter Hay, manager.

TRACK

With many of last year's standbys returning, coaches Frank Bauman and Jack Robinson set out to build a team to outshine last year's third place squad.

Prospects were bright as returning seniors Al Jeske, John McCaslin, Dave Benson, Roger Fosdick, Brooks Young, Cliff Deupree, Curtis Whitted, Rod Hanson, and Bryan Arveson came back.

TENNIS

As spring arrived, the netmen, led by Mr. Moore, took to the courts to make ready for another season.

The team, suffering from the loss of many of the stalwarts, did have about half of the group returning. They were Bob Waddell, Ron Haney, Dan Simpkins, Blaine Waite, Tom Clark, and J. K. Sutor. These, with many new players, composed Thornton's bid for tennis honors.

GOLF

With greens taking shape, Coach Frank Froschauer began the task of molding a winning golf team. Fro's squad took second place in the league last year right behind the Blue Island team which edged Thornton 332 to 331.

The squad boasts five returning lettermen—John Allison, Stanley Czyl, Jack Drucker, Kenneth Burke, and Tom Walker.

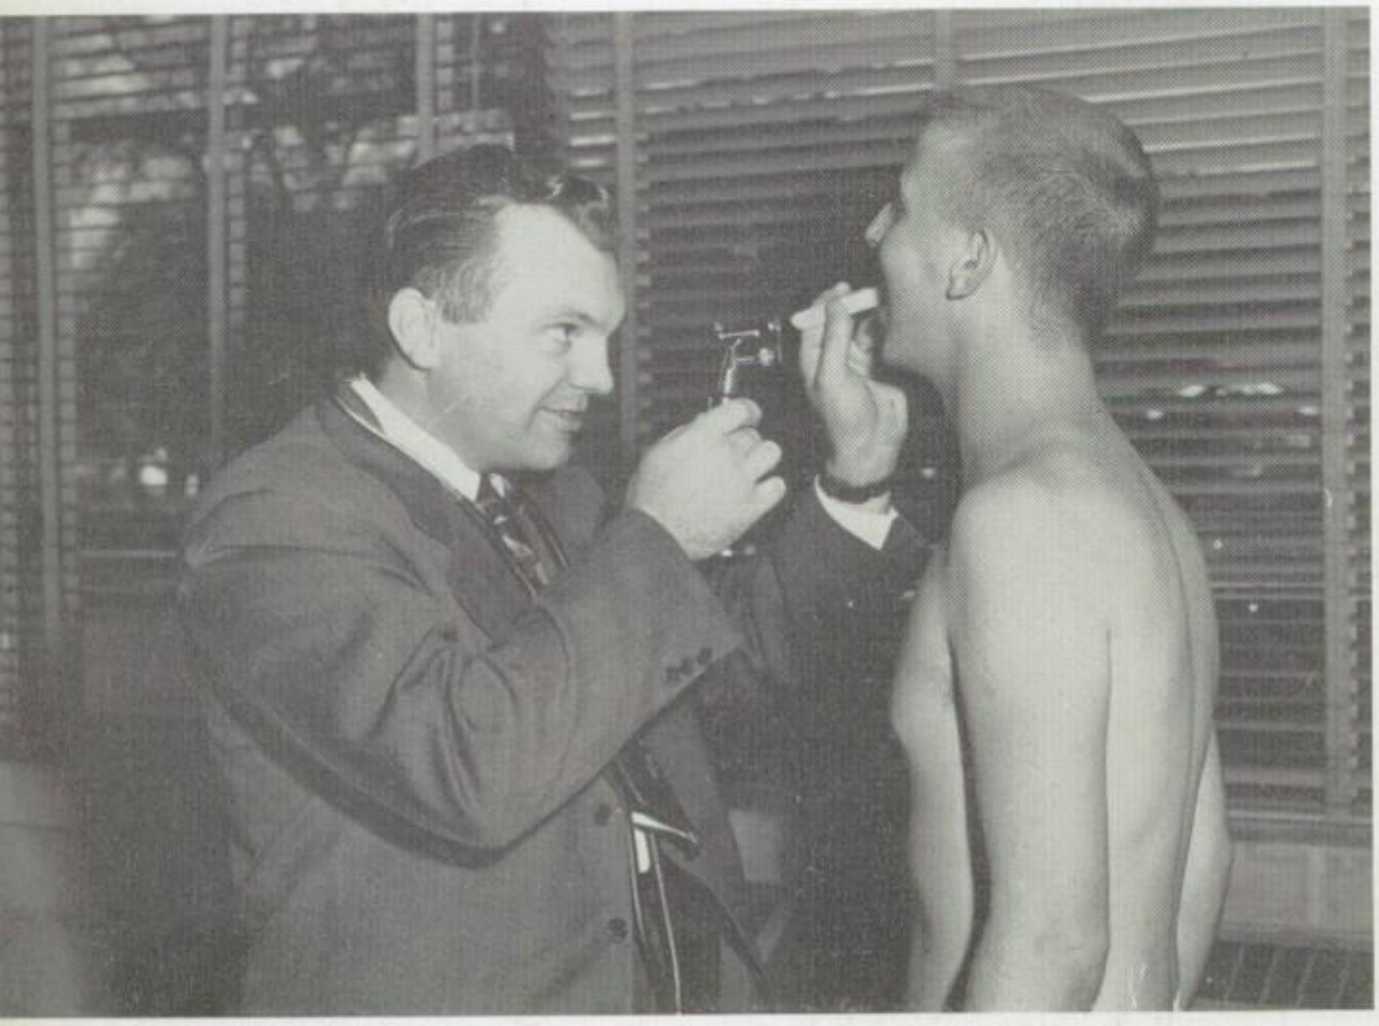
HEALTH PROGRAM

The big gym was the center of all physical education at Thornton again this year. The gym serves not only to develop the body, but the mind as well. The body is developed through healthful exercise, the mind through extensive training in health and first-aid classes.

All seniors took a course in sports appreciation. A new feature of the gym program this year was the addition of an individual sports class offered to all juniors and seniors. This program took the place of the regular special training in anything from golf, to firing a gun.

Charles Welivar shows that "flying through the air" can be done "with the greatest of ease" on Thornton's trampoline.



PHYSICAL EXAMS

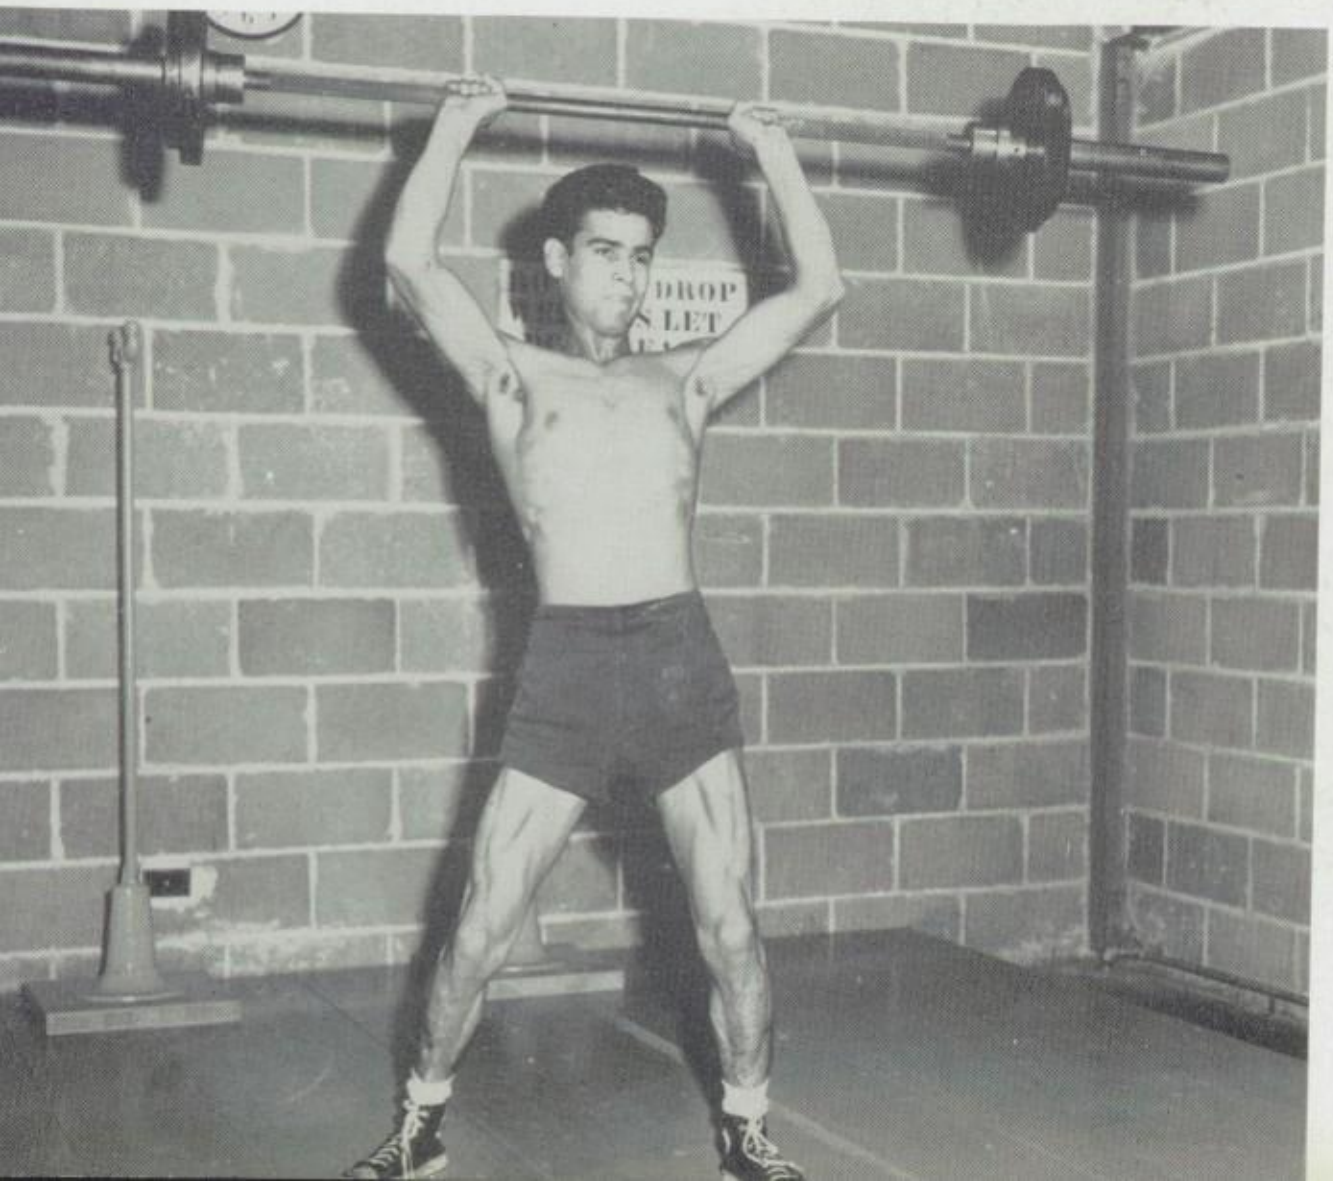
Every freshman boy and every boy out for athletics takes a physical exam "just to make sure". Dr. J. A. Kuzera examines Dave Hansen.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Boys physical education activities are many and varied at Thornton as the big gym provides facilities for almost everything. Thornton's pool is rated one of the best in the state. Every period of the day some one is making use of it. Tumblers and wrestlers have the best of equipment at Thornton and even weight lifters are well supplied with apparatus.

SWIMMING

Things and Thorntonites get all wet in Thornton's new pool.



WEIGHT LIFTING

A very weighty problem is lifted out of the way by energetic Zenobio Carreon.

GYM LEADERS

TUMBLING

Instruction is given in tumbling to girls in the physical education classes as part of the program planned for them.

Row 1: Betty Jean Wesley, Linda Piani, Betty Rosenberg, Lowaner Ellison. Row 2: Janice Boychu, Jackie Dekens, Joanne Sutton, Judy Karney.

Again this year, gym leaders have assisted the teachers in taking attendance, and helping instruct the class in the numerous activities. The leaders learn the activities in advance of the classes they are to help instruct.

GIRLS PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Shuffleboard and stunts are among the more popular activities in Girls Gym classes here at Thornton. However, these are just a few of the many games that are played to help build physical welfare and keep the girls trim.

SHUFFLE BOARD

To demonstrate skill in games they had learned was everybody's ambition.

"Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend" was portrayed as part of the GAA water pageant, "Diapers to Diamonds." Happy smiles were seen not only on the swimmers after the final performance, but on all the committee workers.

DIAMONDS

Joan Rossing, Sandy Potrafke, Joyce Smith, Shelley Ludwig, Colleen Dardis, Luretha Fields.

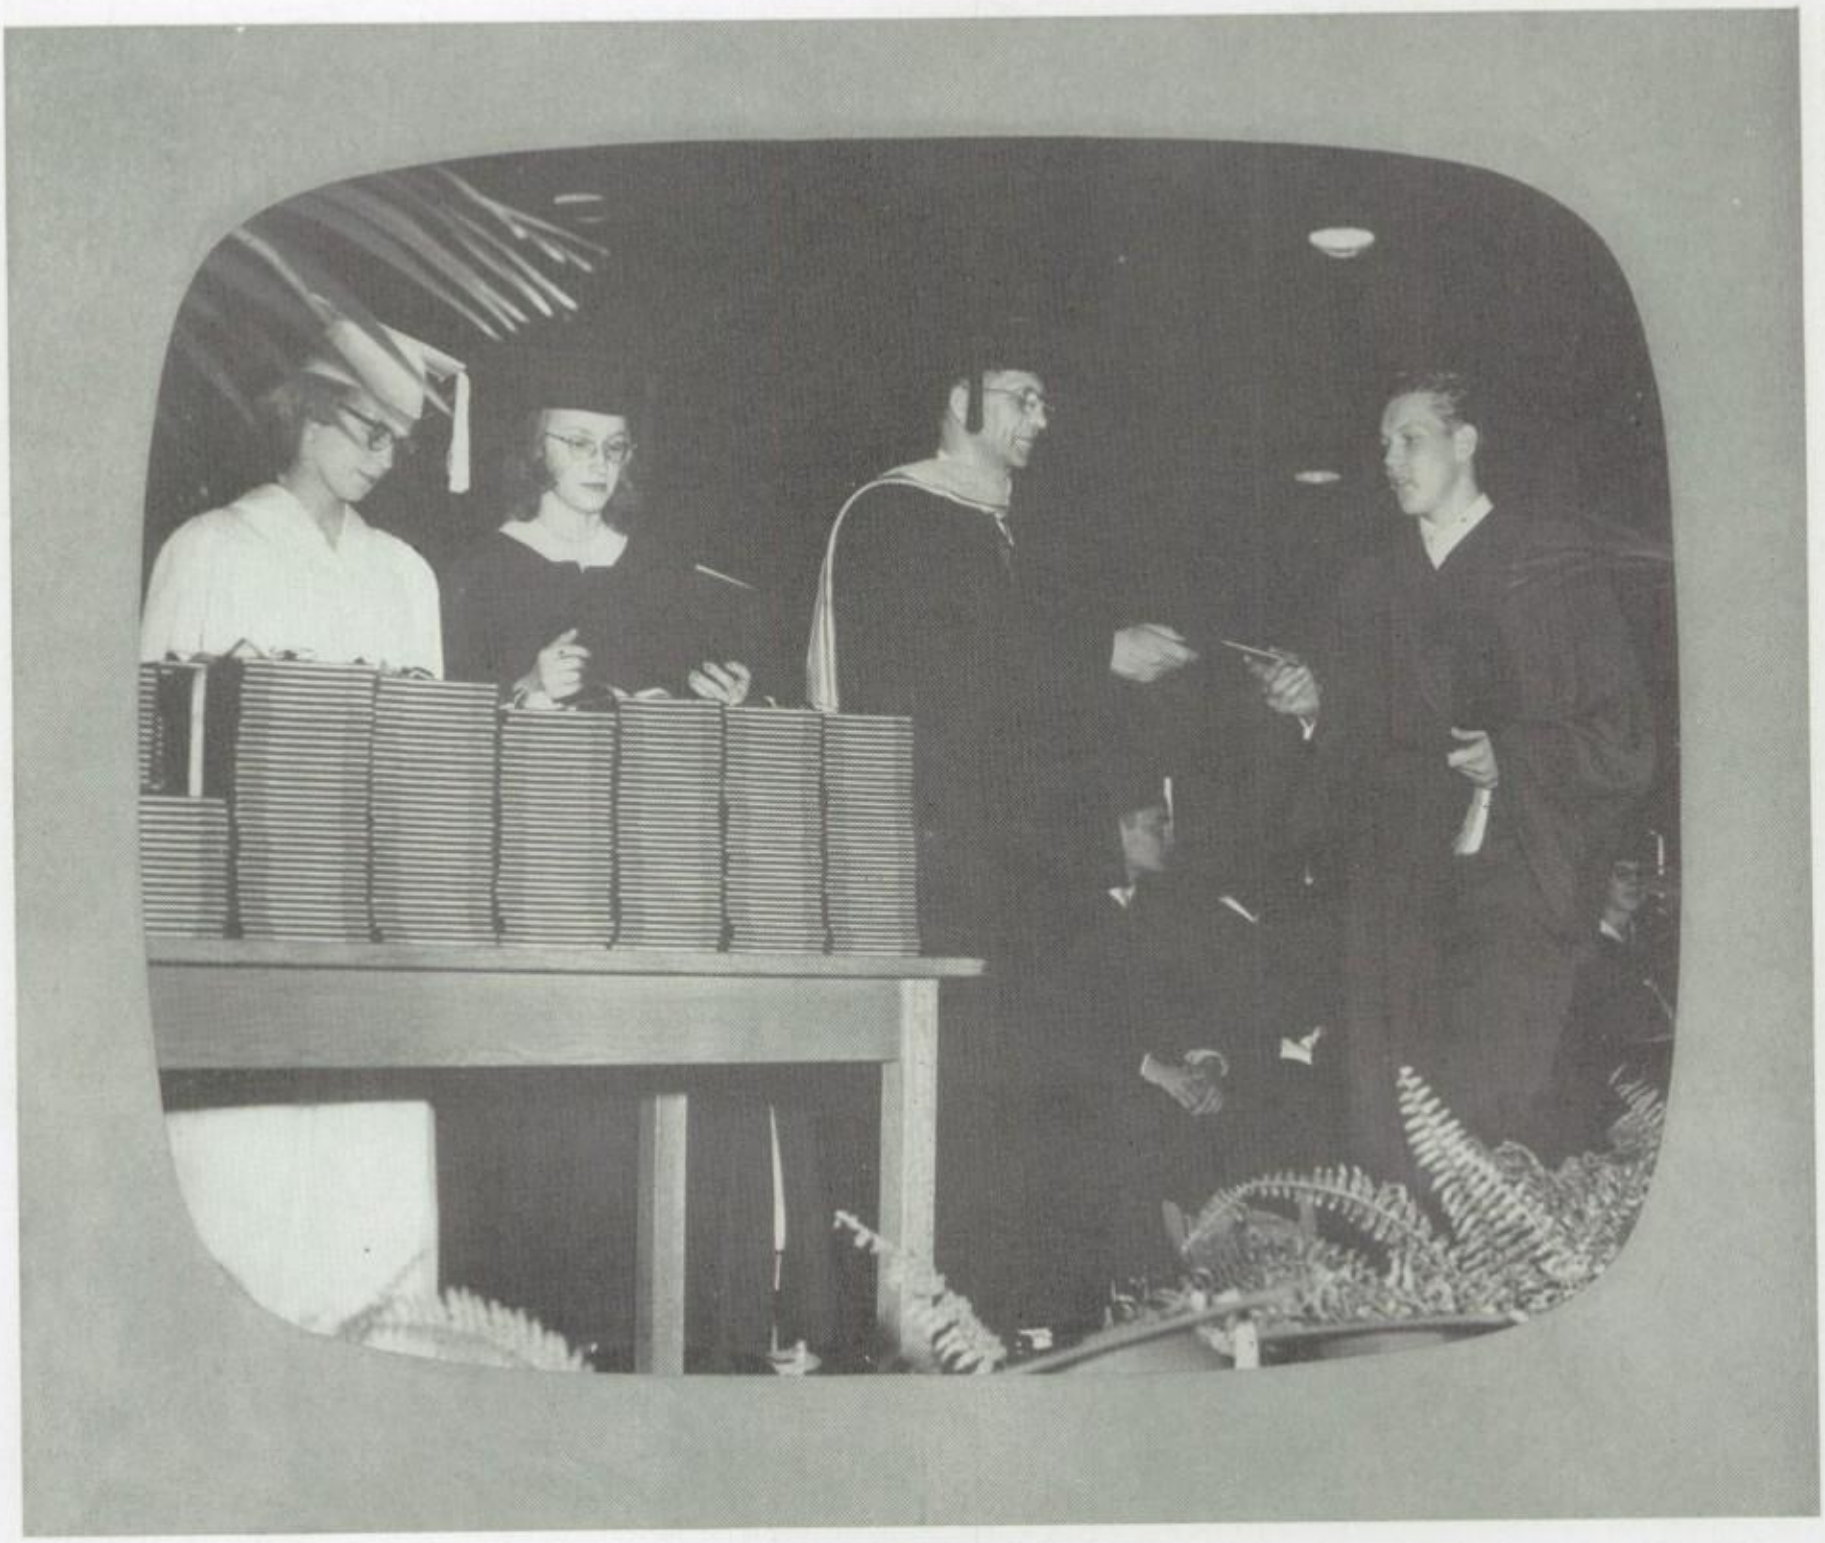
GRAND FINALE

A formation in the shape of a Christmas tree climaxed the pageant.

BABES IN TOYLAND

"Babes in Toyland" was symbolic of the numbers that represented dreams of little girls. They wore hats, cockades, and other typical military dress.

Sue Chilton, Sandy Bergman, Nanci Walker, Sally Edgell, Mary Jo Feldes, Mary Wetmore.



Commencement—Ann Holtgren, Mary Bardwick, Dr. Hanson.

THORNTON IS PEOPLE

Regardless of race, nationality, or religion, everyone is an equal part of Thornton. Many different backgrounds and environments are sifted together. But the results of mixing these differences into one group have proved quite rewarding. All these people are Thorntonites, and each is equally proud of his school. The over-all feeling at Thornton is one of teamwork, which helps Thornton people overcome ignorance and prejudice.

BUSINESS MANAGER

Charles W. Foster. B. Ed., Illinois State Normal University; M.A., Northwestern University. Business Manager, Secretary to Board of Education.

COUNSEL

Burton W. Evans, lawyer; A. F. Waldschmidt, school treasurer.

CLASS PRINCIPALS

Program cards, program changes, grades, absences, cuts, detentions, and excuses — these are the things nightmares are made of.

When a thank-you is spoken or a word of appreciation comes from student, parent, or faculty, that is when class principals beam.

Prodding the lagging, congratulating the successful, and steering them all in the way they must go is part of the daily routine.

SENIORS

Carl L. Beier. B. Ed., Illinois State Normal University; M.S., State University of Iowa. Senior Class Principal; Acting Head of Physics Department.

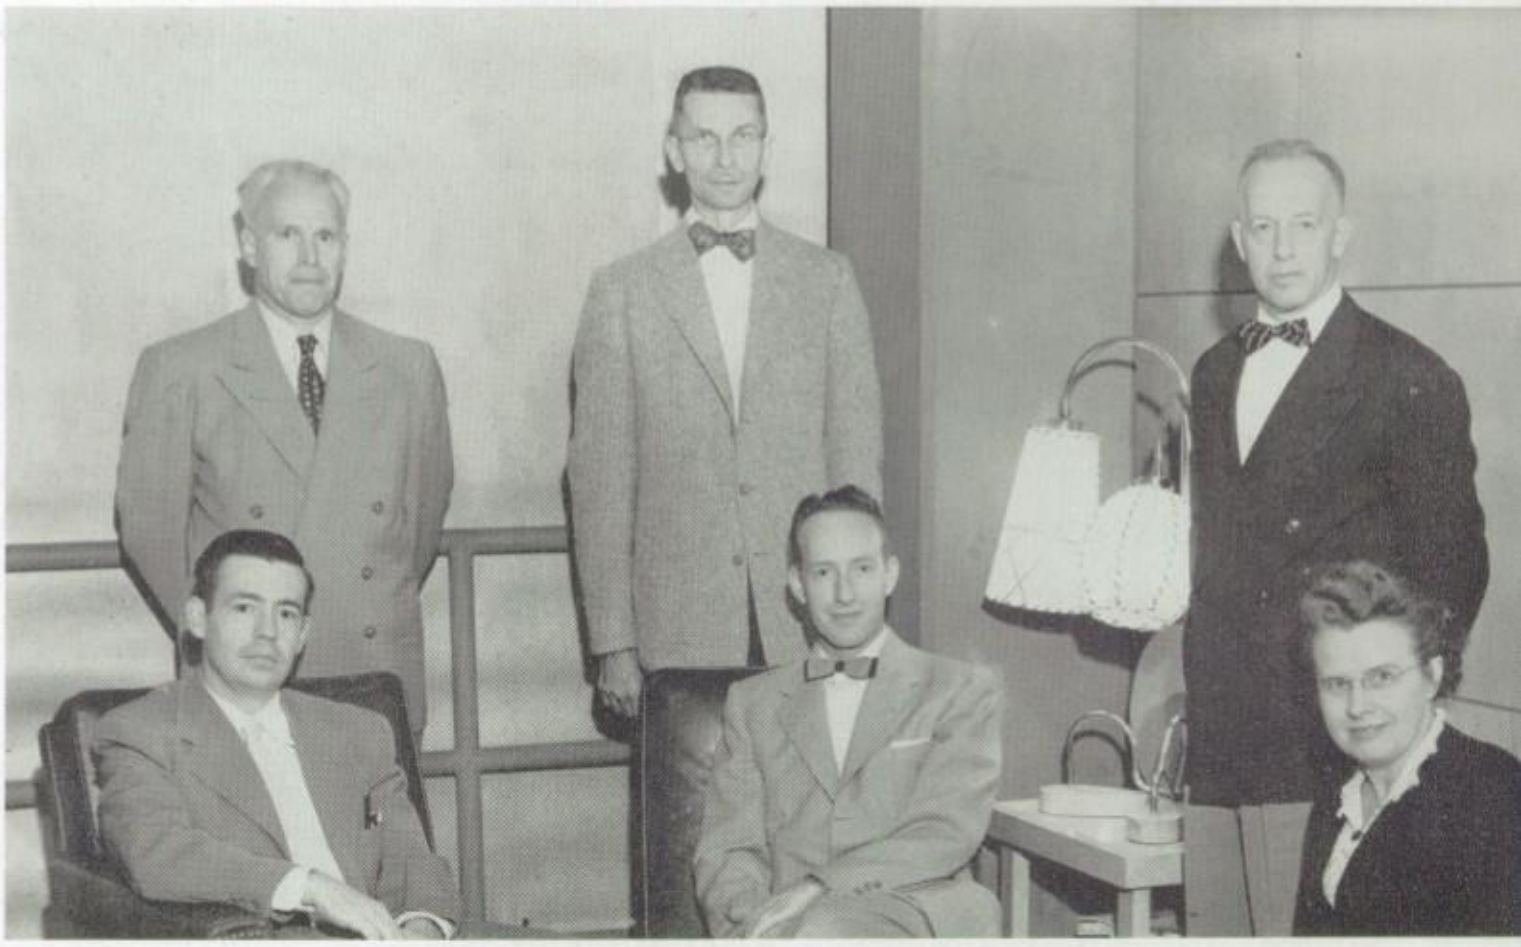
DEAN OF BOYS

O. Fred Umbaugh. B.A., M.A., Wittenberg College. Dean of Boys, Head of English Department. Sponsor, Boys Club, Purple X.

DEANS

TTHS deans play an important role in Thornton's everyday drama. Their lives center around school affairs. Girls Club, Boys Club, and Hall Guards, social activities and welfare are all within their province. Both find the counseling of Thorntonites in personal affairs, as those affairs affect school life, a major part of their work as deans.

FACULTY ASSOCIATION



Row 1: James C. McMahon, treasurer; Fred J. Burdine, board; Elizabeth Brushfield, secretary. Row 2: Joseph T. Botts, vice-president; Henry R. Harms, board; Carl Mendenhall, president.

FACULTY

TTHS and TJC faculty are represented in school affairs by the Faculty Association. Its purpose is to promote good school and public relations.

PARENT-TEACHERS

Through the Parent-Teachers Association, the two groups come together to make for the mutual understanding so necessary to a progressive school.

Evelyn Lindstrom, Ruth Ross, Marian Finchum, Dora Harthun.

OFFICE 103

Dolores Bogan, Clara Stewart, Leona Wiener, Ruby Leidinger.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

Howard Doster, building superintendent; Grace Wilson, secretary.

MORE STAFFS

It takes more than faculty and students to run a school. Somebody has to keep the buildings in repair and clean; somebody has to manage the money and keep the records. Somebody has to feed those noisy, hungry mouths. That's where the office, maintenance, and cafeteria staffs come in.

CAFETERIA

SENIOR CLASS

After four years at Thornton, the seniors find themselves at the end of an important part of life's journey. These few, swift years have passed only too rapidly for the graduates, who look back upon good times and dear friends. These moments of happiness, these friendships, will soon be just memories, but the knowledge they have gained through experience will enrich their lives and give to them a better tomorrow. As men and women now taking their places in the world, they look ahead to jobs, to college, to marriage, and to the draft.

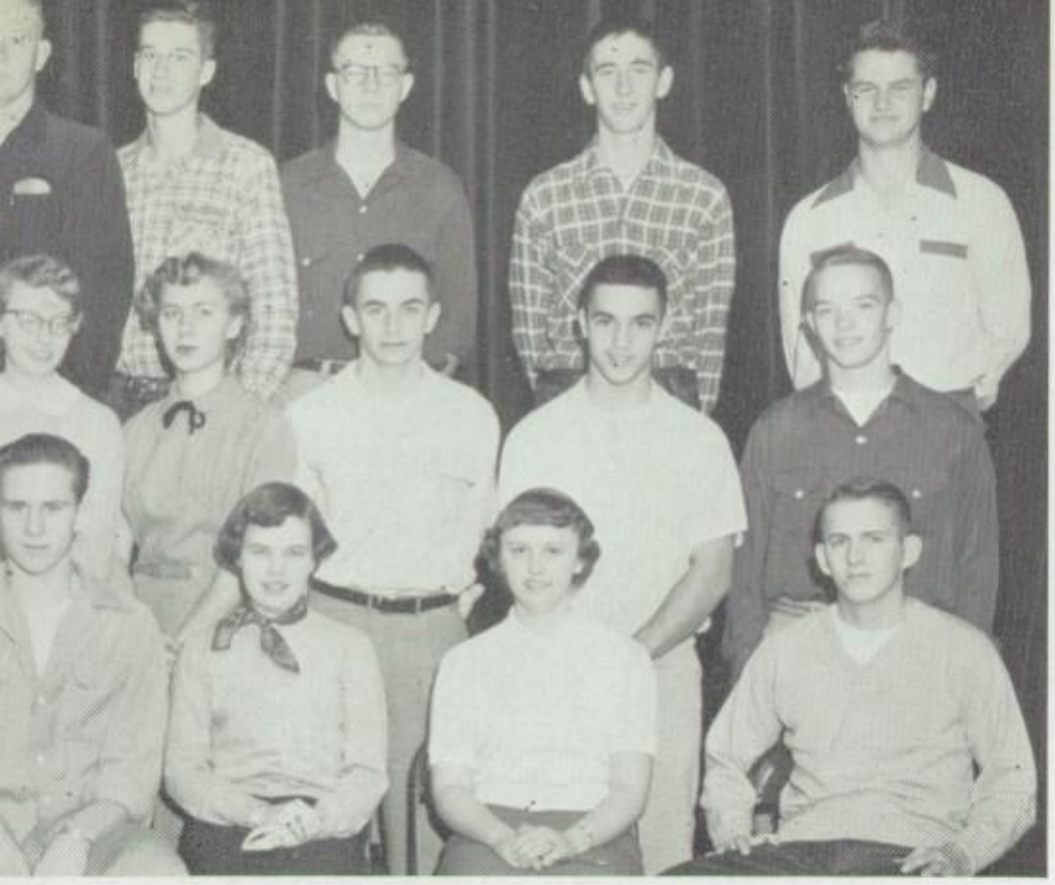
Row 1: Mary Bardwick, Joy Lambert, Antonette Belmonti, Binnie Braun, Joan Brown, Jane Gouwens. Row 2: Ann Holtgren, Cecily Daanen, Susan Morse, Linda Norford, Barbara Beier, Dorothy Zimdahl. Row 3: Bill Lyon, Bill Stuart, Dick Kloskowski, Jon Valbert, Don Curry, Bob Facko, Pat Oviatt. Row 4: John Diamond, Al Lowery, Wayne Kruger, Peter Eckstein, Gary Kueber, Richard Suhs, Bryan Arveson, George Gallati.



CLASS SENATE

Just as the technicians and cameramen are the men behind the scenes of your favorite TV programs, you will find the Senior Class Senate behind the scenes of many of the events so important to seniors at Thornton, such as the Junior Senior Party and the Prom.

USHERS, GUIDES

Row 1. Joan Brown, Jane Gouwens, guide; Ann Holtgren, guide; Janet Greig, guide; Binnie Braun. Row 2: Dorothy Zimdahl, Barbara Beier, Mary Bardwick, Alice Robinson, Alan Sons, George Gallati. Row 3: Bill Lyon, Jon Valbert, Richard Suhs, Gary Kueber, Norman Brown, David Dalenberg. Row 4: Gerald Johnson, Dick Kloskowski, Peter Eckstein, Bryan Arveson, Bob Facko, Larry Brown, John Diamond, Bob DeGraff.

HONORS

June brings honors to Thornton students. Juniors and Seniors who have a B average are eligible for National Honor Society. Teachers select students with the best in character, leadership, scholarship, and service. Five per cent of the Junior class and ten per cent of the Senior class with these qualities may make NHS.

Graduation ushers represent the top scholastic Juniors. The two highest in the group are guides.

JUNIORS

Two years ago a group of wide-eyed freshmen were wandering up and down Thornton's halls. These freshies are now juniors. This year they have felt the responsibilities and privileges that go with being upperclassmen.

They have shone in athletics. They have held offices in the many clubs. They helped plan the class party and Prom. They have worked hard on committees for school and club projects.

The junior year is a busy year and is over before it has begun. And the juniors look forward with pride to next year.

SOPHOMORES

After a trying freshman year at Thornton, sophomores returned with the feeling of being a part of school. In the fall, class officers and senators were elected and the annual sophomore party was held in the spring.

FRESHMAN

Green we call 'em, but what's wrong with being green? Not a thing! Freshmen come to Thornton eager for what lies ahead and anxious to find their places. During that first year they soon begin to see what Thornton is all about.
